Im not sure how many of you guys remember RenStation from back in the day. Used to be the best fanmaps server ever, well in my opinion. But it is back! RenBase00 is the server at the moment. I think everyone should take a look and get back into it. It really changed renegade with its 50 player server back in the day Everyone go look! And I am just a fan who is telling you this. And the great speedy059 is back too! its not me though im jsut letting everyone know lol

Good news m8, I remember that server well. It used to be one of my favourite servers.

RenStation never went anywhere. It is still up and running and it's host name is a0000000i.

I think you're confused with another server.

Im not confused with another server. Speedy059 the original host of renstation is now hosting renbase. He gave renstation up to some people that as he puts it " into the wrong hands."

99% of everything that went wrong there can be traced back to theaer and all his bullshit lies and games. Not that it had a very good foundation to stand on anyways ...

Your beating a dead horse. Washu and monk new it, Opty and myself knew it, that is why we moved on. You can't run a community on the same 10 pathetic people. There is a reason speedy didn't come back ...

And which 10 pathetic people are you talking about? Speedy is on RenStations IRC right now. He has been helping with some problems that I had. One of them being a script that keeps hogging the CPU. I don't understand what you're getting at.

Renstation isn't too bad. There's quite a few decent (old) players that still play regularly, and quite a few people from Renbattle/Renwarz play there as well.

I had a list and a whole thing typed out but my point is lost and to be honest it just doesn't matter. Go back to doing your thing and I will shut up and do the same. Beat your dead horse, whorship speedy and have a blast doing it. I don't even know why I care, I guess because I still feel a little attachment to the place since it was the first community I ever joined and the first one I ever ran. I just wish it could finally die and be put out of its misery.

Oh and I saw {WG}Sm0ke stopped by ... you should promote him. He is a good guy.

My problem is from way back, too. I helped out RenStation right before Speedy left and after he left most of the staff was like "fuck you" and didn't appreciate my help, so I stopped helping.

RenStation has changed alot over the past few years. For you to say for me to go warship speedy is a bit harsh dont you think? I dont hardly know you and you're assuming that I suck up to him.

Speedy helps out when he can. He doesn't sit there waiting for me to give him a problem. The only person I can think of that still maintains RenStation from back in the day is MrDucky and he's a cool guy.

If you have problems with certain people at certain communitis why dont you take it up with them? I dont see why you had to bring RenStation itself into it.
