if this is maidenty and co's response to being banned here for a week I have lost any respect I had for them...

obviously I have no way of knowing if it was them, but IF it was then its not going to convince people to take them seriously...

I doubt that spoony and Pr0 ordered this, because I made this post on their forums, and PMd them both to bring their attention to it. If anything, it's possibly their lack of bringing this to the attention of the other forums they posted on, and some needless revenge those fools are trying to exact upon someone who did not do anything beyond what they stated they would.

Now then, by using Spoony's logic relating to Crimson and Kholdstare, these attacks would make him responsible, and therefore blamable for them.

I'm not saying a damn thing about this. It's a botnet attacking the server so there's no way to pin it down to a specific IP.

well thats why I said IF it was them.

If it was not then I apologise in advance for suspecting them, but you have to admit the timing is very suspicious.

Well maybe someone who hates Spooky is doing it to frame him? There are possibilities you must consider here.

indeed, and probably I jumped to a conclusion which is unjustified, but either way, whoever WAS behind the packet flooding is, imo, a pathetic loser who gets his thrills from disrupting a forum for half an hour or so...

I'm just preempting what this looks like it could turn in to, so I'm locking the thread.

No need to go into a blame game and return to the same arguments that have been going on for the past few days.
