Ive been bored latly, and picked up on website creating and imaging. If you want a website for you or your clan I could make you one if you want, PM me or reply here with contact information. They might not be great, but for some reason making websites is pretty enjoying to me, and practice wont hurt me if I want to get better, so if anyone would like a website for yourself or your clan PM me or reply here.

Make an Allied Website skin (for RA2 only) and post it up here and the Apoc Rising team will take a look at it.

We have a Soviet one made by assasin and he was willing to make the Allied one but he wants to get this one up.

I take it you've never heard of Apocalypse Rising and i would recommend going to the links in my sig.

Although we have a forums, our site needs a good rebuild. We're moving to cnc-source soon and we need site skins (proper, professional site) for the Allied team, since we have the Soviet one already.

If you don't want to do it, we can understand, we'll just get Assasin to do it for us, since all the members are working together for a huge (one of our biggest yet) updates to show how fast we're moving along. I think this mod can rival APB and Reborn and the other mods out there at being No #1.

Userdata, posts etc were moved over a while ago, but I expect it will all be re-copied when the switchover becomes official, since quite a few posts have been made since.

Don't get me wrong, I think it's good that your offering to make websites for clans, but I was just wondering what exactly you are offering. Are we talking PHP coded websites integrated with a forum here, or just HTML?

If he just started, I'm guessing it's just HTML and maybe CSS.

I'm betting it's web pages made in DreamWeaver or Frontpage.

I had this problem with needing sites to make for practice. I just kept working on mine. (I still have heaps to do on it though)

That's not true, at least to its entirety. I love to use Dreamweaver as it highlights keywords and so fourth.
