They are perhaps the LARGEST collection of n00bs in the game. they call it "fun", and when normal folks don't agree, we don't know how to "have fun" according to them.

ops is a bunch of losers. You have all repeatedly posted hateful things in just about every forum out there, and made fun of Renegade, clans, admins, and ruined countless games out there with your bullshit tactics of team stealing, and giving equipment to your clanmates on the other team.

Spare me your " We are innocent" crap.

I reference the "Aircraftkiller is queer" name for Ravens server among others.

I was really suprised when you announced you were with OPS. I had a measure of respect until then. Now, it's guilt by association. Your clan CONTINUES to use these tactics on WOL (when it's up), not to mention spamming under false names on the IRC channel.

Poor OPS.

Poor OPS. I guess you fail to realize that things change, and our entire clan roster is different than it was previously... So you think we should just get a new tag or something? It's not like we are the same clan as we were before. Maybe a new tag would help get that psychological hate out of your head... but that's not that important.

Yes, you do need to do something different. That clan is affiliated with many evil memories all across the Renegade world, and no matter what you state about "new" rosters, old clanners remain with ties to the losers.

Stating the obvious is redundant.

Clear evidence of affiliation with old ties is represented in this topic, where you agree with Raven that REOL is a scam

<http://www.n00bstories.com/renforums/viewtopic.php?t=201>

Agreeing with people for the sake of old ties, proves loyalty, but it also proves ignorance. Think for yourself, and break from old ties. It's the only way to be taken seriously.

Thus the point England was trying to get through my head. He has broken from his old ties, and made a change of camps. Proof of change comes from action. OPS changing it's name wouldn't change the skill level of the players, but it would get rid of a nefarious reputation, and allow people to be willing to play you again. Lets look at the mentality of OPS here. This post was an apology from Kirby to England. One person is man enough to apologize, and the other is man enough to accept the apology.

NOWHERE IN THE INITIAL POST DID I SEE KIRBY OR ENGLAND MENTION THE CLAN OPS! THEN AN OPS MEMBER COMES IN AND TURNS THIS IN TO A FLAME NOT RELATED TO THE TOPIC!

FUCK OFF! MAKE YOUR OWN POST THEN. DON'T COME AND FLAME ANOTHER POST THAT DID NOT PERTAIN TO YOU. THIS WAS A PUBLIC APOLOGY. NOT AN INVITE TO A FLAME WAR.

Like Kirby said, OPS has a habit of ruining games and forum posts. Prove that OPS has changed then. Leave this post alone.

It is easy to forgive, and impossible to forget. All you can do is learn to live with the memories.

I think this is a post that has gotten off the beaten path, all because OPS feels that it is their right to go and ruin a unique and rare moment. Not too often do you see a public apology.

Good Day,

K9

Agreeing with people for the sake of old ties, proves loyalty, but it also proves ignorance. Think for yourself, and break from old ties. It's the only way to be taken seriously.Sometimes I just have to ask myself, "Are you stupid?" Notice my one word post you are referring to which is "scam?" Now, how in any remote way does that show I am agreeing with Raven... and about what? Did you notice the fucking QUESTION MARK? Yeah, that basically translates into, "Could this be a scam?" which is basically a question which presses Dante or whoever to reply with reassurance that it's not, which I was pretty sure with to begin with, and he did.

KIRBY098Thus the point England was trying to get through my head. He has broken from his old ties, and made a change of camps. Proof of change comes from action. OPS changing it's name wouldn't change the skill level of the players, but it would get rid of a nefarious reputation, and allow people to be willing to play you again. Maybee the Pitts personell would even be willing to do a rematch, now that the losers are kicked from OPS.Umm yeah, well considering that I don't really have any "ties" to break, because I was never involved in any of the "bad things" that OPS did, I don't think I could break these imaginary ties by leaving the clan. I am in OPS because there's skilled players in it and we can defeat other teams often together, not because I want to go taunt and harass people, which I don't. If you want to prejudice me because I'm an OPS member, you do that, fine. But I'm not going to leave OPS because there's some people in it who you don't like and you have a problem with me associating with them.

Also, Raven is not in OPS, and I shouldn't be held accountable for what he does. OPS pretty much considers Raven a "Nazi."

K9Trooper, I hardly know how to start with the complete senselessness of your post, flamer. As I just said, you are a flamer, because you posted a flame. I have flamed nobody, like you seem to think. You show me where I flamed someone, then maybe I'll change my mind. If changing the subject slightly is considered a flame to you, you need to rethink your comprehension methods.

Now, speaking of changing the subject, let's take a look or 2 at Kirby's changing the subject. In Raven's topic about REOL and serial keys, Kirby comes out of nowhere with this hateful flame:KIRBY098Did you know.....

That OPS is a bunch of immature, whiny, hypocritical, two faced, spamming, kiddie clanners?

<http://www.n00bstories.com/renforums/viewtopic.php?t=205>

Pretending to be Javafx was pathetic. Almost as pathetic as whining about using a valid program to enjoy the game. Also, in the "Teamspeak Shenanigans," people are discussing the Teamspeak mayhem when Kirby comes in with this hateful flame:KIRBY098OPS = GOATSE WANNABEES.

They are perhaps the LARGEST collection of n00bs in the game. they call it "fun", and when normal folks don't agree, we don't know how to "have fun" according to them.

Can't you OPS losers just find a different game to ruin? Now personally, I don't recall ever doing anything to piss you off, unless you consider association a crime. I think you ought to cut the OPS hate crap and quit spreading the past about our history, make some peace, and stop complaining about it.

But that's just me.

Ummmm, it says, OPS is a bunch of losers. Not "c-4Miner is a loser". You really need to stop taking this so personal when I talk about OPS and it's history. It's not like they stopped acting like asses last year, and I'm hanging on to this forever. RECENT events prove OPS haven't changed.

If you are being a good boy, then bravo. The rest of them aren't.

One last thing about guilt by association:

Do you think the Department of Justice would care if they found out I was buddies with an Al Qaeda operative who bombed the towers, and I knew they were doing bad things, even if I never did anything wrong?

Do cops care if you buy a stolen car and you state that you didn't steal it, you just bought it from the guy who did?

Do you think any of the higher ups in Enron are getting many request for thier resumes right now?

You choose to associate with them, so you suffer the same backlash as they do.
Suprise, suprise.

ok, kicked? we formed our own separate clan, let me set this straight for you kirby, ops was a clan with me, raven, sukhoi, wookets, faze, monkey, c4, slowmo, zkill1z, duk, beef and others, now some point, about 1 and a half months ago sukhoi was pushed out of the leadership role and didnt like it, he managed to gain the admin pw and kicked me and wookets out, then raven, faze, slow, monkey and zkill1z joined me and wookets and we all made brought back PAW, and i can assure u theres tension between the two clans, but we seem to forget that here, now stop making referances to ops being losers im pretty sure the pits admin team would still get whipped by the new ops with only sukhoi, c4 and duk and some other members they recruited, paw would definately win, and if they are willing to id love to play them againure right about ops changing its name wouldnt change there skill level, they would still own sure we sometimes liked to go into big 40 player servers, mess them up and watch the n00bs complain that there rank will drop coz of us and that they will report us to n00bstories, u should try it sometime
