CNC Zone wants your maps. If you have any maps that we can use to post on our website, you can either post a link here, use our upload script at the site, or email it to me using this address. neo@cnczone.zzn.com Thank you.

Do you support stuff like bunkers? I'm making a bunker. It's really cool too. It's almost done. My map is almost complete too. I just need to put this bunker in it and put it in level edit.
