Your government has failed you. That is if you live in the US. The system has failed to protect you from illegal immigrants. Just look at the news they are killing, stealing, raping, and destroying America as we know it. They are a prejudice people who do not want to assimilate and become American, instead they just keep on preaching: "Latino rights! Latino rights! Latino rights!" And then there is Mayor Viliragosa who is breaking the law by favoring illegal immigrants. The bottom line is the people who run the system, the government, has failed. I mean common, how can you fight a war on terrorism with your borders wide open! Do those diplomats even care about this country anymore? Does anybody care? It seems to me that people are afraid to speak up against illegal immigrants for fear of being called a racist. Well guess what this is America, and we have freedom of speech, well not as much as in Texas but we still have it!

DESU=?????

Edit: America is being entertained to death, movies like Saw 1, Saw 2, Saw 3, Scream, The Texas Chainsaw Massacre, they are making the youth not treat human life with respect and treat everything with respect all around them. Its true. I am a high school student and I see people laughing at nothing! They cuss for no reason, they act like Hollywood celebrities, and the girls dress up like Hookers! Some people act like gangsters, infact I know somebody who is White and acts like a bigshot gangster, so does his sister, it is really sad what is going on in todays society, imagine the youth today 10 years from now voting on important issues that are important for Americas future. You have to have knowlodge. With all of the bluff, pointlessness, and lets buy that and get this just because the celebrities have it. People are ignorant, and and that is dangerous at these hot political times. And yet 80% of the world lives in poverty, and nobody really gives a damn about the horrors that are going on on this planet as you read this! I mean you can buy military equipment, you can buy people, children, bombs, tanks, missiles, all you have to do is get the money. It is really quite sad that America is somehow an oasis from all of this suffering. Just look at Africa!

EDIT: Terrorism?! Please! Watch This Movie. Arm Yourself With Knowledge. P.S. You might want to change the screen size so that you can read it.

It's not hard to pick out similarities in things and then try and connect the two. You just need to use reason and logic to see through the false connections. Yawn

Remember what I said about taking facts and drawing the wrong conclusions?

Of course the government and the people are separate. Do you realize what problems would arise if EVERYONE got their say in what was going on?

Heck, even with the few people on this forum alone nothing can be agreed upon fully.

The only way a stable society can function is if control is taken out of the average person's hand and placed in someone who represents a group. This would be why America is called a Representative-Democracy as not everyone gets their say, but rather a select few represent a larger group. Heck, that's even taught in school that control is taken away from the average person. If that person who is representing a larger group is corrupt (ie. not representing the will of his group) there is no one to blame but the majority who elected him or her.

as for the existence of the illuminati, or lack thereof remember this: If a famous historical figure mentions something, it must be true!

A little off topic, just think of the people who come here legal. It took about 13 years for me and my family to come here. So, if you came here illegal, then thats would be like cheating and very much unfair. But there is a need for more protection near the southern as well as the northern borders. Everybody is suppose to follow the laws, and laws are made so everyone has a fair right.

The Illuminati is real! A Missile hit the Pentagon and 9/11 was a government conspiracy to cover up the fact that the holocaust never never went to the moon and was really just aliens that were sucked into the Bermuda Triangle after a man on the grassy knoll got back from Area 51!

Perhaps before trying to educate us you could learn how to spell half the words you are using and use the edit button instead of having 5 posts in a row.

And regarding the borders being open and undefended. Well if there is a group manipulating the masses do you honestly think securing the borders is going to be anywhere near as big a challenge as controlling the the population of America. Which would require predicting thousands of social reactions to thousands of stimuli and so on.

Fluoride being in the water supply is also far too crude a method of short-term memory control and thought manipulation. Lets assume that the group in power which manipulates us has access to more advanced technology than is available to the masses. Energy manipulation devices on satellites that orbit the earth which in theory could change our thought process and perception. Would that not be a lot easier to use than the primitive means of effecting short term memory with fluoride. I'm not denying it may negatively effect your brain in some way. But it's probably very minimal, and primarily there to preserve peoples teeth.

Basically thrash, you are not thinking quite for yourself. You're letting text and videos place ideas in your head which are far too basic to be accurate in the first place. Perhaps a certain group in control is spinning these out trying to turn susceptible groups of people into paranoid wrecks?

You're not thinking deeply enough about any of this thrash. You should take what I've said into consideration.

(note: it's good to question things, I'm not saying don't do that. But don't let ideas and theories like the ones on the sites thrash likes to frequent control you. Question those as well)

Also I'd like to point out that a good lot of you are worthless trolls who are not much better than thrash. And gotsow just isn't even funny (a post earlier where he just made himself look stupid when trying to take the piss out of thrash)

And finally, the world trade center conspiracy can be debunked quite effectively here.

Sorry to come in here, the devil lurks among this thread.

People are consintly bashing the last, trying to possibly look smarter than the person he/she has targeted. These people are most likely trying to gain a better reputation, or just to feel smart/tuff for a small moment, either until it wares off or if his target makes a come back(depending on how strong or weak the comeback is determinds how much of an effect it will make)

I'm also noticing that the same Asswiser quotes are still being used over and over again through out long periods of time lol. Something else that i'm begginig to notice with asswisers is that instead of using quotes over and over again, they are beginning to use the same short sentances/few words over and over again. Here's one:

"This is getting old."

That is really being milked from by Asswisers
One of the first ones was:

"Get over it"

Although what's different about that one is that it's usually used by an Asswiser when attacking.

thrash300, I think you're on a good path here. Conspiracy theories are fun to think about and find evidence for. Don't listen to those who think you're crazy or stupid. However, you REALLY need to learn how to spell and form sentences if you're ever going to be taken seriously. Sorry. :\

It goes a bit beyond "fun" when someone takes the conspiracy so seriously. Especially when it involved drawing conclusions from things that have no relation to each other.

Heck, I enjoy a good theory myself, but I know when I'm drawing conclusions that have nothing to do with each other.

That's the only thing that I'm disputing here. Most of Thrash's conclusions are based on circular cause and effect (an example would be inflation) A -> B -> C-> A.

Hollywood creates The Texas Chainsaw Massacre. People enjoy it, and makes the studio money. Because it makes money, Hollywood makes another movie of the same genre. Because it's of the same genre, people enjoy it and make the studio money. Because it makes money... and so on and so forth. It's not some mystical ploy to corrupt the youth of today.

AS I keep saying, its just taking the facts and drawing the wrong conclusions.

Sarcasm is a very low form of wit. I'd have expected you to highlight some of the points that I made.

Like letting the conspiracy websites think for him. When in fact he could have thought about them and realised most of the conspiracy theories are far too crude or basic.

As I said, I'm not saying don't question things like WTC bombings (etc etc) and your governments actions. But for goodness sake don't be stupid about it. Like the whole fluoride thing, there would most likely be far more easy ways to manipulate people than preserving their teeth and effecting their short term memory. [Like putting drugs that do fuck your memory up (why not huge ammounts of THC in the water supply)]

We should not be questioning this specific conspiracy theory anymore anyway. The evidence makes it clear to believe that the WTCs destruction was planned by the government. Some people may find it hard to believe simply because they don't want to believe it, some people are just closed minded

The evidence is fairly sound for debunking that particular conspiracy theory, yes. But it is still necessary to question things about WTC.

I think you should stop trying to come accross as being above everyone else though. Especially with that stupid word 'asswiser' that you coined. The term is troll and there are varying degrees of trolls. For example Jball is a more intelligent troll than most who can back up things with evidence. Where as Dave Anderson is just an arrogant jerk troll who isn't quite suited for the roll of being a troll.

But of course.

Bush calls in a few business favours with the Bin Laden's (someone who he has been in "legitimate" business with before) and tell him to get into contact with Osama. He then tells them to orchestrate an attack on a few notable targets, and to avoid suspicion, attempt an attack on the White House. He tells them not to worry, as the attack on the White House will be conveniently foiled.

The attacks will allow America to go to war with the Middle East to aquire it's vast oil reserves. He tells the Bin Laden's not to worry, as any hunt against Osama will only be a cover, and Osama will conveniently never be found.

The American people will have their heros. Bush will have his oil and newfound loyal followers in the people, Osama can disappear and the Bin Ladens will have developed a few favours open up to them with the American Government and/or George Bush.

I'd say that's a definite conspiracy theory. And remember, its all true, dispite what some people may tell you to think.

Man...I'm no better than anyone, what is better?...exactly. That's just not me Since doing something like that is what i would consider an Asswiser, that's the last thing I would want to do lol. I don't judge that way. The only reason I use perfect grammar and spelling is because since I speak of the Asswisers, it sometimes makes them angry and when they get angry they target me, and one of the first things an Asswiser will do before attacking is look for where to attack, your spelling and grammar is one of the first things they look at to attack.

Let me tell you a tale!

When I first posted here, I did not think that they would attack me in grammar/spelling, So...I didn't worry about it. STRAIGHT AWAY the first Asswiser by the name of "Dave Mason" attacks, and guess what he attacked? That's right my grammar and spelling. So watch out for them!

I noticed you said something about Dave Anderson, he wasn't the same when I first knew him, he seemed pretty normal. Afterwards he made an "attempt" to culture himself, most people do this over a long period of time, Dave Anderson did it quite quickly, that's if you consider him cultured. He is now a business man that runs a successful company.

Spelling and grammar aren't that big a thing. Only for idiot elitists like Dave Mason, who happens to be a completely worthless troll. But when thrash tries to educate people about something it's incredibly annoying to trawl through his abortions of the English language.

As I said, the more you try to dig for a connection, the greater the chance you're going to find one... the thing is, usually they won't coincide.

You claim that the government and other powers at be are monitoring us and trying to control us, yet they've allowed for so many conspiracies to surface? Wouldn't they want to eliminate a threat before it becomes one?

Sure, they couldn't prevent every threat, but you'd certainly think they would cover up the 9/11 Conspiracy, wouldn't you?

They basically did coverup 911. The big press is printing out stories, that don't go hand and hand with what the people really think. This is thier goal, keep throwing shit at you, hey, some of it has to stick. Their fore the short term memmory will be wiped, along with the flouride that you drink in your water daily, and the tooth paste that you brush your teeth with also contributes to your affected consness. Just look up flouride and water. Listen, these people, if they are people, they are smart, they probably know how you think <Satinists, Spirituallity, Scosialogy>. Is there really a gun and liquer store on every block in South Central Los Angeles? That rap music doesn't sound nice. It may sound crazy but lets pretent that you were playing a game of Renegade with me, and you knew how I thought the emotional, geo-political place, social status, all this really narrows things down for you to make dicisions based apom my disisions on what I am going to do. AWWW we now maybe going into a higher or lower level of thought and consness. Knowledge is power. There is a war on for your mind. Think this over for them we must be cattle that are controlled in the directions that they want us to go in.

EDIT: Remember that it is the mind that controls the body the other way around. But then you have neurons.

Perhaps before trying to educate us you could learn how to spell half the words you are using and use the edit button instead of having 5 posts in a row.

And regarding the borders being open and undefended. Well if there is a group manipulating the masses do you honestly think securing the borders is going to be anywhere near as big a challenge as controlling the the population of America. Which would require predicting thousands of social reactions to thousands of stimuli and so on.

Fluoride being in the water supply is also far too crude a method of short-term memory control and thought manipulation. Lets assume that the group in power which manipulates us has access to more advanced technology than is available to the masses. Energy manipulation devices on satellites that orbit the earth which in theory could change our though process and perception. Would that not be a lot easier to use than the primitive means of effecting short term memory with flouride. I'm not denying it may negatively effect your brain in some way. But it's probably very minimal, and primarily there to preserve peoples teeth.

Basically thrash, you are not thinking quite for yourself. You're letting text and videos place ideas in your head which are far too basic to be accurate in the first place. Perhaps a certain group in control is spinning these out trying to turn susceptible groups of people into paranoid wrecks?

You're not thinking deeply enough about any of this thrash. You should take what I've said into consideration.

(note: it's good to question things, I'm not saying don't do that. But don't let ideas and theories like the ones on the sites thrash likes to frequent control you. Question those as well)

Also I'd like to point out that a good lot of you are worthless trolls who are not much better than thrash. And gotsow just isn't even funny (a post earlier where he just made himself look stupid when trying to take the piss out of thrash)

And finally, the world trade center conspiracy can be debunked quite effectively here.
<http://internetdetectives.biz/case/loose-change>

Rmuser took a good couple of months to put together the facts. The thing is Loose-Change is fiction anyway but marketed as non-fiction for profit after the creator wanted a shot at stardom.

Trust me I have taken many things into considerations as well as questioning them. The part about using satellites and energy devices I am well aware of these things, I just didn't want to post them and not look toooooo far out. The pyramid pyramid pyramid pyramid pyramid you keep ending up at this. By the way have you even looked up the flouride issue?

Was it because you considered it racist? Told you so.

Well here goes again.

Glasgow, Scotland, UK.

I have chinks, pakis, seiks, eyeties, poles, darkies, mean mean black persons and just about every other nationality in the world staying her.

I particularly refer to the Muslims. Send them all home, Ma, Pa, Granny, Granda, Auntie, Uncle and all the little brats that they spawn.

Only then will the UK borders be clear.

Theres no black in the Union Jack or for that matter yellow, brown, pink or otherwise.

Me a Racist

Home Rule.

You come across as really arrogant and that bothers me. I'm sorry to be so harsh. But it's just your whole atitude when you're posting. I seen your site and it's like you're stroking your giant e-penis with the whole "I'm a programmer" thing you've got going on.

This includes the fact you 'run a company.'

In response to puddle, I wasn't disagreeing with you or attacking you.

Personally I'm not too fond of immigrants myself, there isn't a great deal of logic behind my dislike for them. But I feel enraged seeing a mueslim family, especially wearing burkas etc.

I just dislike Help-Linux's posting traits and he really doesn't have much clue on the matter. Immigration can be a good thing though. It can boost the economy but it can lower it. There are a lot of factors to take into account.

Lets start from the beginning here.

Quote:Dave Anderson is a 16 year troll who thinks he is an absolute legend with visual studio. That's all he is. He doesn't even seem overly skilled, but he is very arrogant over it.

Spelling and grammar aren't that big a thing. Only for idiot elitists like Dave Mason, who happens to be a completely worthless troll. But when thrash tries to educate people about something it's incredibly annoying to trawl through his abortions of the English language.

Just stick to troll, asswiser is just an annoying label.

Lets start with the "I am a legend with Visual Studio" part. I do not know where you have gotten that phrase from. I have never said to anyone, or posted anywhere that I am even remotely good with Visual Studio, whether I really am or not. Do I think I am decent? Sure, but like every programmer, I am still learning. But I do not go around bragging "oh my god I can do this and you can't". Whether I seem "overskilled" to you or not is just stupid considering you have not seen half of the things I have done, and from what you have probably seen, you can't possibly pass judgment on.

As for "running a company" let me apologize for trying to get somewhere in life at an early age so I am not stuck in poverty later in life. Let me apologize for doing something I am passionate about. Let me apologize for trying to be a professional, mature and respectful person. I can't see how you can possibly dis someone for trying in life. What are you doing to try and make your life better?

Quote:I seen your site and it's like you're stroking your giant e-penis with the whole "I'm a programmer" thing you've got going on.

My site is about computer programming, yes. Just because I have a website relating to programming you dog me for it. That does not even make any sense. That would be like you saying the same thing about the programmers of many game mod's just because they have a website for it.

The fact that you even bring up the name "deadfive" shows me that you still have a grudge from the days of my idiocy. Get over it. Yeah, I was younger, immature and stupid. I have been sincere about my apology towards this community for the way I acted back then, but I can't change the fact that it did happen. You bringing it back up shows me you are trying to dig dirt up from the past and use it against me in your argument that I am some kind of a "troll" as you say.

Also, leave Help-Linux out of this, he has nothing to do with any of this.

I know him much more than you do, and he's nothing like what you're trying to describe. I'm asking you to stop it right now. You are digging way deep into the ground, with absolutely no knowledge of what you're doing, and looking for something that isn't even there.

Hey Dave, sorry for being such a jerk. It's just your posts came across to me as incredibly arrogant and your signature and website etc really struck me as arrogant. I was unable to see past it. I really hate it when I see people like that on forums.

I was just really full of hatred, and then from there kind of classed you as a completely arrogant tard from a couple of posts I read (just your manner of speaking). From there it just kind of built up. Sorry. You don't seem too bad. But I've been very high strung. Now it's Friday and I'm chilled and I did get the point of both you and Icedogs posts and therefore questioned why I hated you so much. Though the whole company thing is still retarded in my eye. Just study hard at school for a head start (I know it may not be that simple).

I was addressing help-linux on a different matter. He really is a bit of a tard though. You can't just ship immigrants away by the dozens and you need to investigate the issue much more deeply. And his coding really does suck (his bot for example).

Sorry Dave though fuck you help-linux (also thrash).

Only if they are an 8-14 in size. Oh what the fuc*!! any woman in a bikini will do me, 18 stone is pushing it a little Conspiracies!! Dont we just love reading them. Make your own minds up(not directed at anyone in particular) but dont attempt to force your views on someone. All you get is aggravation and no settlement.

Until we are all in higher Government Office, will we ever know the truth. Then you would be sworn to secrecy anyway, so who the fuc* gives a toss?

understand the english in that:

if someone dosnt like you, they are hardly likely gonna want you to stay.

now, wanting someone to leave and saying someone has no right to be here and post here is different.

does that make things easier to understand?

or are you gonna reply to this without thinking and do nothing but spam the boards?

no? good.

You know what they say about assumptions.

They make a <fool> out of U and ME.

Assuming someone wants you to leave, just because they don't like you is just that: an assumption. It's not always true.

Real life example:

I absolutely hated one person in a group I was in. However, he was great at his job, and we would have suffered if he left. I hated him, but I did not want him to leave.

In your immature mind, sure, disliking means wanting the other person to be as far away as possible, but when you mature, your brain starts to think differently. Maybe I'm expecting too much from you to understand that, but you'll see in the upcoming years.

j ball is right, however, i have felt almost right from the start i have not been liked on these forums. i want this to be the TRUTH not hidden behind some stupid mature closed minded adult, what you think of me. my posts latetly have been completely against adults, but that is because us kids are judged like meat. if we do something wrong, like a mistake thats it you all hate us. and sterotype us. when in fact i have not seen in the media one 15 year old kill someone, mabe it has happend but alot more adults do this. it has been proven that alot more crimes are commited by 18+(i cannot find a servay but seen it on the news, mabe someone wants to find one). so before you look at a 15 year old and judge him because he is wearing a "hoody" and yes i wear them. it keeps my head warm. think to yourself and say "who am i to judge him like that" and if you do. why dont you do it to anyone but us kids?

i came to these forums to help people, but in some cases i need help myself. lets take the Seye for instance, i need 2 thing that would take 5 mins each for someone to do. first, i needed infomation about gamelog as i didn't have the sources to SSAOW. second, i needed some overhead pictures of the maps. not all of them just some so i can get sizes and positioning right. no one wanted to even do that. secondly, all i wanted was for a few people (about 10) to download and run the SBot to see if it worked that would take less than 1 min. about 3 people done it. i tryed to give something to the community and i got next to nothing in return, you should all be happy because if you wanted to make me very depressed ... you acomplished it. when i started playing renegade it was because of the17doctor, and because of how crappy servers have gone...he has gone completly off renegade. i havnt played it in a long time because i was wrting the SBot and Seye, and now my website. oh and i just remberd, i made a thread like you suggested for my site. i was asking for links etc so i can put some content on my site. 2 people posted SSeS of renegade in-game and 5 fan-pictures. other than that it went derelict. what did i do to deserve that? or do i live a life being more and more depressed untill i die. what a waste of human life, that had so much potential.

there are alot of people in this world who think age automatically grants you wisdom, and that just because they have more experience in this world, they have a right to look down their noses at us, and brand us idiots because of our age.

i dont claim to be perfectly mature, and i dont like be looked down uppon for showing a bit of immaturity.

at my age, it is getting closer to a time when we'd be having to enter the world of work, and fend for ourselves, and it downright depresses me to see that people look down uppon me for enjoying the last year or so of 'freedom' that i'll have.

our exams start in the spring, the exams which could make or break our future - stressing enough as it is without being look down at just because of age.

Wow, so thought out... but so misguided.

Kids are looked down upon, yes. Maybe too much, but it's not as harshly as you make it out to be. I was there once. I look back and realize how stupid I was, but I thought I was smarter than everyone who disagreed with me. I am not calling you stupid because you're young. I was like you once. I thought I was smarter than I was. I wasn't stupid, but I had a lot of growing up to do, and to be honest, I still have a bit of immaturity left. I'm not done growing up, myself.

As for wearing hoodies... whoever judges someone for wearing a hoodie is a damn idiot. I wear hoodies. My girlfriend wears hoodies. My brother, cousin, and even my mom wears hoodies.

I try not to judge people, but when I say that you're a 15 year old, immature kid, it's not saying it to judge... it's the truth. There's not much you can do to escape the immaturity of your age. It's a physical thing, too. Our brains don't fully mature until about the age of 25.

As for being depressed about the responses you've gotten from people on here... duh? It's the Renegade Forums, and it's filled with idiots. Of course, they're not going to help. You'll see threads left and right like yours being derailed. If you want help, you certainly shouldn't try and get it from here. These forums have lost all of it's compassion years ago.

It's not so much age that grants you wisdom, it's age that grants you maturity, which... if you use to the potential, can let you achieve wisdom. Those who look down at kids because they're young are tossing the future of our world out the window. I was looked down upon as a kid, and I hated it, but the truth is, there is some legitimacy to it. Kids aren't mature. As I said above, it's physical.

Don't try to grow up quickly to be accepted, but certainly don't use this time as an excuse to be annoying. Have fun, but at the same time don't act like it's your right to be a spoiled, arrogant brat.

Wow, so thought out... but so misguided.

Kids are looked down upon, yes. Maybe too much, but it's not as harshly as you make it out to be. I was there once. I look back and realize how stupid I was, but I thought I was smarter than everyone who disagreed with me. I am not calling you stupid because you're young. I was like you once. I thought I was smarter than I was. I wasn't stupid, but I had a lot of growing up to do, and to be honest, I still have a bit of immaturity left. I'm not done growing up, myself.

As for wearing hoodies... whoever judges someone for wearing a hoodie is a damn idiot. I wear hoodies. My girlfriend wears hoodies. My brother, cousin, and even my mom wears hoodies.

I try not to judge people, but when I say that you're a 15 year old, immature kid, it's not saying it to judge... it's the truth. There's not much you can do to escape the immaturity of your age. It's a physical thing, too. Our brains don't fully mature until about the age of 25.

As for being depressed about the responses you've gotten from people on here... duh? It's the Renegade Forums, and it's filled with idiots. Of course, they're not going to help. You'll see threads left and right like yours being derailed. If you want help, you certainly shouldn't try and get it from here. These forums have lost all of it's compassion years ago.

i think there is nothing wrong with being called a 15 year old imature kid. cuz, i am. but i don't like walking down a street getting beeped at by jerks in cars because im walking closer to the road. and as for hoodies our town center has banned them, but 18+ can wear them. and after reading many phycological articals, almost any action from a child right up untill the age of about 18 if the fault of the parent. these days people really dont know how to be a parent, i have a freind who's mother is ridiculus. like me he is 15 and we are members of a steam engine club about 5 miles away, she came and humiliated him infront of about 15 people. she had to call the police to get him, but they didn't bother. instead of ordering in a situation like that all it would of taken would to find out the problem and comprimise. im not telling anyone how to parent, because it is their own choice.

i don't like being looked down upon, but in someone cases, like in school. i think the either the old fashioned way of punishment or we can choose weather to go or not. there are some people in our school who will go out of their way to make someones life a misery, all because they dont want to be there.

im lucky, my mum had a degree in phycology. she can punish me in ways not even death can be better. without laying a single finger on me. i have even learnt some techniques myself, it works wonders on bulllys.

Sorry Dave though fuck you help-linux (also thrash).

FUCK you you peice of shit; where the hell did i come into this? but what the hell i dont even care, go fuckin eat some ape shit.

^^ as for this post ^^

im not going to make any excuse up like i was very angry or anything like that. it was because of my dad, and party because of the fact i needed to take some stress somewhere. the guy that posted this about me touched a very big nerve. it one of the only things that will make me very agressive and forget about the conciquences.

Maybe this is why he posts so much useless threads .

I more or less lay the seeds, you guys choose to argue rather than learn. Well maybe there is some learning going on but I see a lot of self expression.

SHH-SHH-SHH-SHAAA!!!

P.S. We don't care.
