Well, since no one else said anything about it. A true legend of Football died Friday on the eve of one of the most storied matchups in Football History. A great man, a great coach, and overall, a great Wolverine. Rest in peace Bo Shembechler.

To an SEC-lover like you, no. To a Big 10/Michigan fan, it is.

God Damnit, if you have nothing nice to say THEN SHUT YOUR FUCKING MOUTH.

An important man in football history died, it was all over the news.

An important man in football history died, it was all over the news. Easy, he's an SEC fan. He's incapable of showing respect for anybody associated with NCAAF outside of the SEC. How dare he actually show some respect towards the death of the winningest coach of the winningest football team in NCAAF history.

I was actually cheering for Georgia to beat Florida this year, too. Ah well, I guess Florida State has to do the dirty work this week.
