I wasn't sure where to post this but here it goes.

Just wanted to put out there for anyone interested in playing arcade style games you can visit our clan if you like. www.clan.gde

New games added all the time. Some are classics, some adult, some you will think should never been made into a game lol

All you have to do is register then go play. You don't even need to post a single message. Just putting this out there to the community if you want to play some funny games.
