Okay first off let me ask Crimson and other mods to permaban the IP of user "tyvecuman", if you can find it.

Okay, so here's what this person did:

I was on C&C_Field in a mobile artillery, and as soon as I buy it he jumps in with me. When I get out to the front lines and start firing at enemy tanks, he does "something" that causes his head to pop out of the tanks with his arms spread, like you would see in a modelling program.

What this does to me is completely anchors my tank to the fucking ground. It didn't let me move in ANY direction. All I could do was get out of my tank and let it die.

It took me a while to figure out what the hell was going on (hey, maybe it was lag), but after the FOURTH time this happened with tyvecuman in my tank, I am positive that it was him. He had Renguard running too.

I tried to get some mods in n00bstories to ban him but they didn't believe me so he runs free. Anyways, if you ever find your tank mysteriously anchored to the ground with someone's head sticking out, you can assume it's a hack and the person in the tank besides you is at fault.

Here is a screenshot:

I can make an educated guess as to what that is. I'll PM an admin if they want to know.

Assuming my guess is correct, he is indeed cheating and he probably will have renguard running.

you mean like this?

It's a glitch that happens sometimes when you park a vehicle near a PT and enter both the pt and vehicle at the same time, you have to exit the vehicle before you can move it. A hack enabling someone to access the PT anywhere would have the same effect.

U and ur veh would have to be very close to a pt to do it that way.

cheat name removed has PT anywhere that is probly what he was doing was trying to buy someone in the tank or just being stupid.

It can also be caused by lag, it's not necessarily a cheat.

light wrote on Fri, 29 December 2006 15:39It can also be caused by lag, it's not necessarily a cheat.

to happen repeatedly in the field as described wouldn't be lag - this seems like an efficient way of identifying this cheat if the hackers are retarded enough to do it in open territory.

with me, this normally happens as lag on foreign servers. its happened to me a few times, and others in my tank.

for me it doesn't stop the vehicle, but instead it makes it lag, catch and move slower.

by memory you can kill people doing this like they were walking.

JK.

In all honesty, its good to see stories like this come up. If the cheats can get found and banned, then the forums are certainly well worth the spam, in terms of information actually gained.

Keep it up.

Take a quick look at the UN forum.

A cheat has just come on asking for acceptance and re-admission into the community after admitting that hes been cheating everywhere for the last year.

I try to respect each individual on this forum knowing I really do not know who they are and how they act in real life. When it comes down to it though, and I see someone start posting like a childish moron with stupidity flowing in their posts, I tend to lose respect for them. After reading everything in this topic, I would have to say that Troop, you are posting not only childish, but you are not really proving anything. Atleast the good people of this forum like JBall, Icedog and some others can have the self respect to keep their posts civil, understanding, and containing a point. Its sad that you lost my respect, because up until these past posts of yours I have been reading, I actually had some respect for you.
