www.cncnz.com is another.

Also, while you're in the mood for downloading, get Firefox 2, it will help you in your spelling.

I actually miss ACK posting animal skins. That does NOT mean anyone else has to.

Glad somebody else misses him. ./ It just doesn't feel the same around here.

Perhaps, the "old" him, the guy he was in his last few weeks, I wouldn't say was the same man, and wasn't very pleasant to have around.

If you want skins, you should get yourself some animal traps, size depending on how large an animal you want to skin, and then get a gun, and go hunting!

<http://www.planetcnc.com> has some nice model textures too.
