You need to provide information. Things like: Did you save the model texture in a *.dds format?
Did you make sure the generate the mipmaps? Did you save the model texture with the correct
*.dds options?

Check the following link for more help: http://cncseries.com/content/?465

Download a try a trial of Adobe Photoshop and follow along with that tutorial I linked you to and see if that helps any.

I'm not familiar with the software you're using, but maybe someone else is and can help you out.
