I'm Crimson and I approve this message. Basically we hope to have TeamSpeak full of people and we're going to turn Renegade into a drinking game* on Saturday, all day.

*n00bstories.com does not endorse underage drinking, so please obey your local laws about alcohol.

Luckily, for all those in the UK like myself =

You are permitted to consume alcohol within the grounds of your own home from the age of 5 and up with parental/guardian consent.

You couldn't move that date to the end of April? Then I could legally drink. Though, I imagine I will within the sanctity of my own home, anyways. 20 11/12 is fucking close enough, anyways.

omg whats going on in the world, people are trying to get out of having a drink like cr0sis said Quote:You are permitted to consume alcohol within the grounds of your own home from the age of 5 and up with parental/guardian consent (well in the UK anyway) but im sure no-one will actually mind if your sober. I think in the thread on n00bstories gatorade was mentioned as a replacement Alcohol preferable.

We have a slight modification lined up for the server, and like crimson stated = "hopefully our bot will tell you when to take a drink/shot. "

You may feel left out if no alcohol is on hand!
Also, expect the level of player idiocy to rise tenfold by saturday night.
I'll be documenting the day on teamspeak, IRC and ingame with screenshots/statistics etc.
Let the good times roll!

You can partake in the drinking IF it is legal for you, you are responsible enough to handle it and you want to. It is not mandatory, and even if we wanted it to be I have no idea how we could enforce that. I am doing everything I can to ensure that we have n00bkicker/admin coverage comming out your asses for this so things don't get stupid.

It is going to be a blast I hope everyone can be there.

We have a trick or two up our sleeves but yes I know there is going to be a massive demand for a player slots. I was also referring to irc and TS which are not so limited.

Wine is not a drinking game drink. Wine's SOFISTIKATED!

Just like (most, low alcohol) beer, wine is a pussy drink. Why not some distilled liquor that's like 40% alcohol? That's a drinking game's drink.

Don't get me wrong, I'll be on the hard stuff, but if people want to drink something a little more pallatable then it's fine.

Alcohol isn't MANDATORY but would be extremely fun.

Hmmm.... well a drinking game is the hell of a lot more fun when you can see (not just hear) the effect of the alcohol on the other players.

I have a webcam and if I get into the server for this drinking game I plan to use the webcam and mic to record myself playing (and getting extremely drunk and obnoxious). Sometime the next day I could go over the stuff and edit it for the funny parts and post it up on YouTube for everyone to watch.

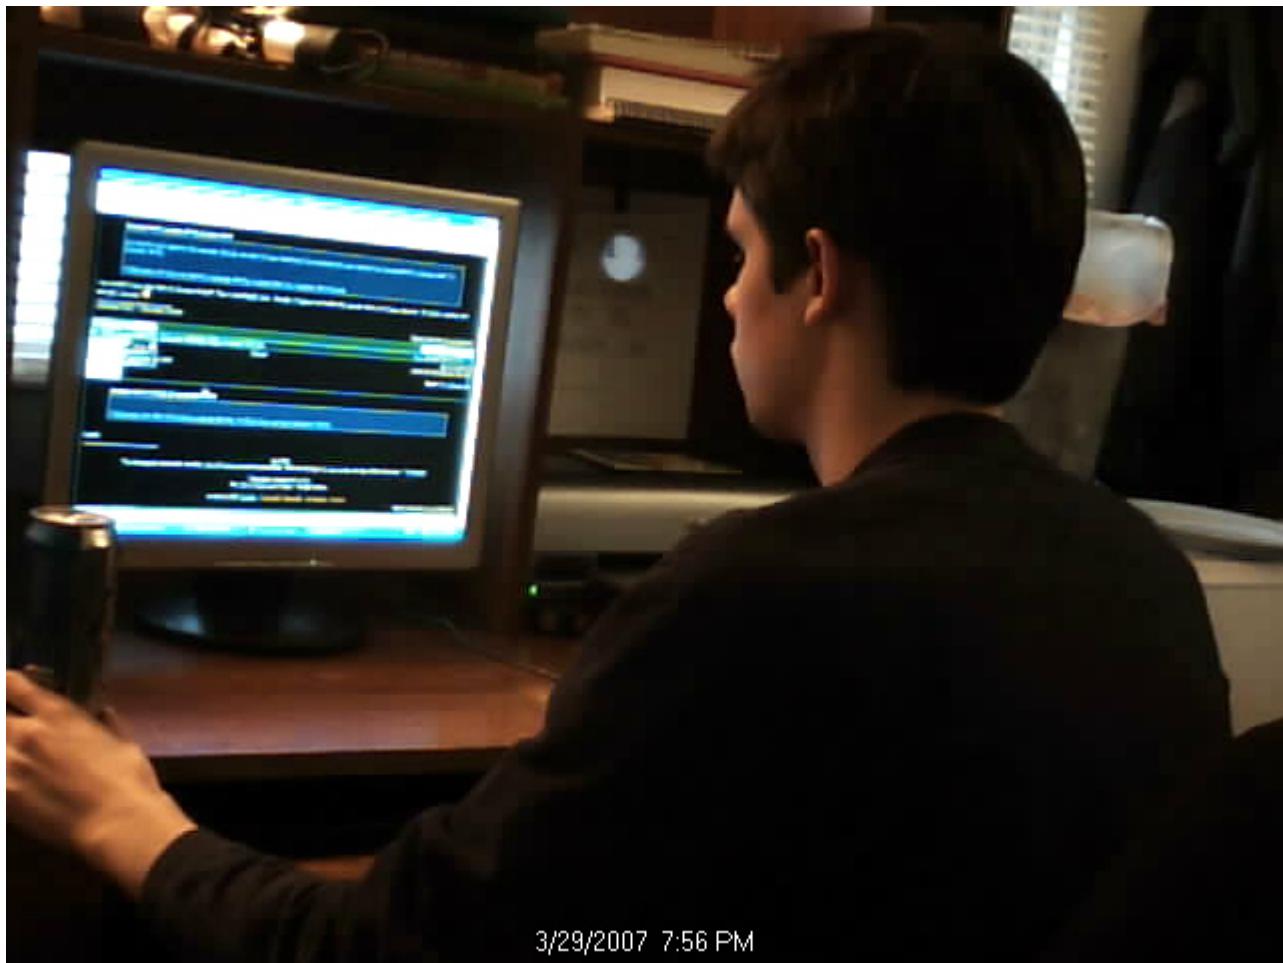

Anyone else with a webcam or video camera is encouraged to do the same because it would be funny.

What time exactly will the drinking game be starting on Saturday?

And will my perma-reserved slot work for this game? Or should I show up early to make sure I can get a spot in the game?

Oh, I remember being drunk playing DoD. Now that was fun. I couldn't kill to save my life, but I did get some skilled shots (or so I think I remember) on a few players. I laughed at them dying by the hands of a drunk. Though, I don't believe I've been drunk enough to forget about it. Either that or I'm too coherent of a drunk, but it's still fun.

We're just playing on the usual server with all the usual settings. We just intend to use the gspot feature to get everyone in and the non-participants should weed out through attrition.

As for time... everyone's on their own time zone so I recommend that you just stop by whenever your evening begins and see if people are there. I expect people to come and go throughout most of the day on Saturday.
