I remember playing you two on the weekend.

I always go crazy when nicks are so close in spelling.

Though back to your request. What server did you get banned from? This forum is for bans from the entire Renguard Network which I can bet is not your case.

Well, if it's the server. There might not of been any confusion but they would of banned the ip address that you both play on (i assume).

It's alot harder to get banned from rengaurd, server bans don't result in a ban from rengaurd (directly).

For future reference, this forum is for RenGuard network bans, not server bans.
