The Flash version (lower file size, and best imo) is here, although an .avi version and a YouTube vid will also soon be available.

The movie was supposed to look like the intro vid from GTA: San Andreas, mainly because as you might know Rp2 was originally based off San An, so I thought it would be a nice lil tribute.

Comments, questions, suggestions?

I would of demanded to be on the mod team if it was Vice City, never cared for the whole Gangsta' mentality or mannerisms and refuse to support it.

How much did Blazea 3d model? He was the only one I noticed credited.

That's a crap load of modeling.

From what I heard Blazea did the modelling and canadacdn did the level edit work.

Blazea did probly about 99% of the modeling. There's a few things in there that I did, such as the tall pointy building, and that random shiny diagonal cube artwork by the cemetary. Canadacdn might have also done some, but for the most part, all credit goes to Blazea.

Edit: YouTube vid available here.

That video is awesome. It sure makes our mod-in-a-map look professional.

That's a crap load of modeling.

95% of it (not including, weapons, and vehicles.)

Maybe our mod will catch on a bit more if we make more videos.

This'd be good for the credits if you shove it in the zip file.

Hell, why wait for the credits? I'll put it in the next movie.
