The violated official forum rules are in red and the corresponding offenses are outlined within.

Moderators: Respect the decisions of the moderators, they hold that position for good reason.

This is more of a catch-all rule but I believe it's plainly obvious that my decisions were NOT respected.

If you have any serious complaints, contact Crimson or Blazer privately. Do not start a public bash-fest against a moderator you don't agree with.

It is also plainly obvious that a public bash-fest was indeed started by fl00d3d.

Also keep in mind that you are not a moderator. You do not decide when threads are locked, posts are deleted, etc., and therefore should not post as such in threads. The "Report Message" and Private Message features are there for a reason.

Many of you do not have access to the Server Owner's subforum, but there is another argument going on in there. I do not make it a habit to lock threads in there, in fact there really should only be like 4 or 5 in the whole thing that have ever been locked. However, fl00d3d is demanding that I lock a particular thread that we are still talking in, believing he has the right to make such a demand because he happens to be the one who started the thread. I explained more than once that I don't lock threads in that forum for him or anyone, no matter who started it, unless there is a very special reason to do so. So special in fact that I can not think of an example of one.

Harassment/Racism/Flaming: Harassment of other members, racism, or any hate speech in general will not be tolerated. Moderators will be the judge of what is intolerable, and what is not. Also, please refrain from flaming other members. If you really must, keep it inside of the Hot Issues forum.

More than once he has tried to create flaming threads outside the Hot Issues forum which necessitated their removal to the Silo.

Flooding/Spam: Posting IS throttled here, there is a variable second wait period between each post. Spam threads/posts will be moved to the Silo. Creating duplicate threads in the same or different forums, and the spamming of useless images or image macros in threads will not be acceptable.

I had to remove his "Create Topic" privileges in the Hot Issues forum just to stop him from opening more and more threads about these issues he has with us. So check off another rule violated.

Cheats/Hacks: This forum fully supports RenGuard along with other anti-cheat solutions. With that said, the posting or advertising of cheats will not be tolerated in any way imaginable.

fl00d3d in Server Owners forum If you want me to make you a full blown enemy there is a hell of a lot more I can do to you and your precious Renguard. So the decision is yours: be less of an asshole, or I become one myself. And, yes, that is a direct threat. Stop being a blatant cunt.

f100d3d in IRChey, let crimson know that she might as well put some money down on a lawyer right now - and start building a case against me - because it is my full intention to release the source code to RenGuard as soon as possible

I do realize that what he said in IRC does not count for a forum ban, but it does help to elucidate the threat he is presenting to the community.

I hope this 30-day timeout will give him the chance he needs to cool off and think about how many times he's promised that he cares about Renegade and how it appears now that it may have been a lie.

Please note that this ban is NOT because he disagreed with me. I tolerated these offenses for a few days but after receiving these threats against RenGuard, he has crossed the line to hurting the community instead of just me, and since he is apparently incapable of participating on these forums in a mature fashion, he is, for the next 30 days, unable to participate on them. The ban may extend should he try to circumvent the ban by making new accounts or relaying his messages to the readers here by having someone post on his behalf.

That said, if someone posts here on his behalf, you should expect to be banned for a few days as well.

In closing, I apologize for my part in the development of this drama-fest, but I hope that you will all understand that I am the type of person who will always stick up for myself when I'm being attacked and I will sometimes go overboard in an attempt to make my point come across. You should all understand that if you have a problem with anything, approaching Blazer or I privately without being sarcastic or angry is a much more mature way to get a dialog going for potential change. I have received several private messages throughout this which proves that most of you do understand this, and I appreciate your comments and feedback.

Now, let's get on with our weekends, shall we?

Maybe things will calm down around here now... Although I have a feeling they wont.

Also on the weekend front, I just had a chocolate crunch icecream bar.

I would have banned him long ago, but Crimmy is much more tolerant. It's sad that he became annoying enough that the time spent dealing with his idiocy was taking away from more important things, including just enjoying the weekend.

I have no patience for people who cannot have a civilized discussion without resorting to name-calling, violence, threats, etc. Plus, most of his "problems" were totally asinine (like demanding that there be no mention of Renguard or other BHS stuff here).

The last straw for me was his outright threats. We've dealt with cyber-terrorists before, and they sure act tough until you take things into the real world and they realize that there ARE consequences to their actions if they push their luck. Hopefully he will chill out for his ban period and not try to carry out his threats. Its easy to talk smack about getting a lawyer etc but I seriously doubt he wants to drop a few grand to go to court over a fucking forum dispute, just to have a judge laugh it out of court Sad thing is he is not some pre-teen n00blet, so he should know better, ah well, enjoy the silence

Try keeping the peace guys, no matter how annoyed you may feel. Get back to reality or do as Blazer suggested.

Be thankful that many more of you have not been banned on the forum for less. Other servers ban far far less. UN banned me for replying to religion so in defence of Crimson and Blazer (not that they need it) they really are more tolerant than others.

StoneCold is right, I mean what's the use in banning fl00d? I mean knowing him he WILL pull a lawsuit, so good luck in that cause you will lose Crimson.

I honoestly don't care if I'm banned, I'm just here to keep up with possible cheaters/new clans/these kind of authority debates.. As you see I don't have many posts fl00d3d is a good man... Creating new accounts? Why would he do that? It just shows that he's a wussie if he does that, and I dought he will make a new account...

btw crimson, YOU led me here, not fl00d, so can't do much about that can you lmfao

Jonty, you have a gut bro And as you said, I think the forums could be better, and some of the mods and admins could be changed. Colors and layout should be changed to while I'm at it lol...

But yeah

Ralphz: You just dont know him

PS: RG is going down the tube thanks to that new patch, and Renegade is dieing fast, yes Stone I know you love this game, but it's dieing, and these forums are just filled wit a bunch of drama.

Puddle, my suggestions are not misguided. I don't know what makes you say that. I have borne witness to enough of f100d3d's crap to make an educated suggestion based on experiance and from what I have seen.

Do not try and make me look like some ban happy ass-clown. If you care to look at f100d3d's posts you can see he has had a clear agenda from the start. His main point through out all of this has been his "I look out for the little guy" attitude. Now he reckons he will release the RG source code, sounds like someone who cares about the little people eh?

Anyone who can't see his agenda and realise that he is trying to play everyone for fools needs to open there mind to the thought that maybe f100d3d is just a jealous little child in a mans body, if they can't see that then personally I would welcome the idea of him leaving here and taking them with him.

And i'm the mis-guided one for wanting rid of him?

As a side note, I couldn't help but notice you when and got yourself into a load more drama at UNrules. Seems to follow you everywhere Puddle. Has it never occured to you that it might not be everyone else with the problem?

If you would like to pick up from where we left off then that's fine. I have ignored you on these forums, aswell as you ignoring me, the situation has been ammicable. However if you feel that your e-penis has grown back to a suitable length after our last encounter then so be it.

What is his agenda then? I'm really not getting it.

Jonty wrote on Sun, 10 June 2007 12:06 What is his agenda then? I'm really not getting it.

He started off in the server owners forum by stirring up controversy.

He then started trying to assisinate the BI guys products and bend others to think it was crap too.

He then started a thread asking the server owners why he was so hated basically.

The above was his start to undermining BHS and BI, and also his start to setting himself up as a selfless little guy with the communities best interests at heart.

He then took the drama to the forums that everyone has access to, with his every post he tried to assisinate the character of Crimson, and also tried cementing his role as "hero to the community".

Everyone loves reading a story of some litle company sueing Microsfot or something and actually winning. It is this that he has played on.

After swaying a few people he decides it's time to introduce the idea of his own run place, which would effectively make him the new Crimson.

This has all been designed and planned. He hasn't got your interests at heart, he is just playing on the "David and Goliath" story that everyone loves.

If you couldn't see that before, surely you can see it now that he has threatened to release the source code of rengaard? That surely isn't "looking out for the little guy", that's pretty much fucking the little guy right in the ass.

He is merely a frustrated little man with a chip on his shoulder. Don't let yourself get used by him.

I'd rather be in a community run by him than in one run by Crimson.

But I haven't seem all this hoo-hah in the server-owner's forum, so I guess I'll reserve judgement for now.

What Reborn said pretty closely matches what happened in server owners indeed. Apart from the fact that he all started this for such a reason, I don't know about that, but after the complete nonsense he kept on talking, saying that he had a lot of skill and therefore people should listen to him and blindly doing what he says. I would really not like forums led by him. But I don't see any problem here anyway, apart from perhaps that these kind of flame fest topics should be closed far earlier.

I would have probably had a different opinion if I had not read the server owners threads. (The thread over there is currently filled with "only 30 days?" posts)

Ban me for what? Supporting Flood3d? Well, I'm going to tell you straight up, dude, fuck you, (Understand "that is") all I needed to say to you and about you guys (Assuming plural from "-z", debate this in a seperate grammar thread) wanting Flood3d (Notice he can type Flood3d's name correctly sometimes) to be banned permanently, I don't think that should even be a topic because he shouldn't be banned permanently AND his "punishment" for breaking the rules (Assuming plural again, either that or, on this forum, you agree to both the "Rules" and the "Rulez", presumably the latter is some sort of "1337" translation) has already been given and adding on to that would just proved how you're biased and how (much?) you don't like him personally.

Aside from a lack of evidence and reference to "Rulez", that post almost was helpful. About as helful as this, anyway.

I'm going to go play Renegade.

StoneCold and RRkiller, you're both idiots. Anybody that can blindly support anybody, let alone f100d3d, has to be fucking stupid. There's not really much more that I can add to that besides think for yourself.

Personally, if I can get my little opinion in here, I think this all is incredibly dumb.

I really don't want to take sides but Crimson is the admin of the forums, and honestly she can do whatever the fuck she wants.

You guys are making this into a giant (Retarded, too) Soap Opera. Think about all this for a minute. It's a forum, on the internet. What you say on the internet carries little if not no heed (or at least SHOULDN'T) in anyone else's daily lives. The internet is NOT serious business.

I read this thread, and the other megahuge 19 page thread flame fest, and I really think it's just stupid. If crimson banned f100d3d, she had a really good reason to do it (and actually if you read the first page you'll see that.) I'm sure you've heard this before but this time listen- If you don't like the way the forum is being done, then leave. Delete the bookmark from your folders, or block the page from your internet browser and forget about it. All you're doing is causing a ruckus.

If you wish... carry on. I'm done with my rant.

The whole mention of lawsuits over "forum drama" is the most LOL shit ever. Nobody, and I mean NOBODY has ever sued someone over some internet crap. The few who had money enough to try were laughed out of court. The whole "OMG I'm gonna call my lawyer and sue you" is equivalent to a couple of 6 year olds on the playground saying "My dad can beat up your dad".

The only even possibility of a lawsuit happening here is BHS filing a cease and desist against anyone who is proven to be hacking our product or services, or violating our IP rights (NDA). (yes 0x90 hacked RG but he is not in the US so why bother). And we would only do that in defense. At any rate, BHS is an LLC so even if someone managed to sue us and "take us to the cleaners", it would have zero impact on our personal lives.

The tweak I made was relatively minor. I had only put the BHS-related tech support forums first because they were generally more active than the other ones, but this little tweak is to remind everyone that the Renegade community is always first on my mind. Its called a IP ban... You ban the IP from getting on the forums.. When I ban someone from my forums, It gets them on the following,

Username
Email
IP
host name (if you want)

Those are only 4, theres a total of 8, But I cant think of the other 4 triggers of the top of my head.

& For #2, I just pm crimson about something, dont worry about it

You really are an arrogant cow.

Unlike this forum, that forum promotes free speech, what do you do? you constantly censor.

Get off your high horse and see that you can't always be right, and stop trying to act like you are the 'queen' of renegade.

Just like every other thread, she's kept it open for discussion. I am not so sure it's to 'provoke' replies.

Either way, we all know that this whole thing will die down. The forum will lose a few members here and there (but those upset enough really aren't big contributors to the community), but renforums will continue just like it did after the last 'revolt'.

Bottom line is, we all know that there is room for improvement on these forums. Anybody rational will have some things they agree and disagree on how things are done. When it comes down to it, do the cons outweigh the pros? I don't think so.

I'm not sure how you see there's more cons than pros.

These forums are free to register and post on.

We're free of stupid censoring by a large corporation

We're not forced to be on 'good' behavior

Dissenting opinions (to a certain, understandable point) are allowed.

If you don't want to see the BHS forums, there are little "-" icons you can click next to the forum name, and it'll minimize it, so you don't have to look at it.

Cons:

Censoring of trivial things: A load of stars uses the same amount of bandwidth as *****.com, and it's no use arguing that it's a malicious site.

Administrators act on their own personal opinions of everyone, effectively disregarding other peoples' opinions.

The use of an "official" forum to advertise a product that is essentially different.

I agree that it shouldn't be censored because it's NOT malicious, either, but her point wasn't the amount of bandwidth it uses... she just didn't want bandwidth going towards the site.
They don't disregard others' opinions if they're brought up in a civil way, and fl00d3d's overkill on the dissent wasn't civil by any means.
I agree with that. If she has a category for one product, she should allow for more categories of the same for others.
Viking and troop are both annoying, but can both be effectively ignored without having to ban.
They're not doing anything against the forum besides dragging down the already low collective IQ of renforums.

Carry on Crimson, show the rest of this forum what you are really like.

Hopefully most of them will join ***** where they don't need to feel suppressed.

Wow, I missed a lot.

Heh, if THIS is what shows the world what Crimson is really like, then I say "Good job Crimson!".

There is no reason someone should be forced to link to anything that goes against the forum owner. I highly doubt Westwood, or even Fl00d3d would allow it themselves.

Have any of you actually READ the website? It doesn't go against Crimson other than the fact fl00ded says "Noticing the ridiculous censorship on the "official" forums, the constant ignorance of those entrusted with power, and the general mistreatment of the community." The general aim of the forum is "an alternative community site dedicated to the preservation of the creativity, comradery, friendly, and FUN attributes which has kept this game alive years past its abandonment from Electronic Arts."

Note the "alternative".

You mean the post where fl00d3d mentioned that Crimson threatened to ban moderators who didn't agree with her (lie, by the way- otherwise I would be "fired" by now) Where he glosses over the reasons why signatures etc. were censored? And where he ADMITS to signing the NDA?

Yes, I read it.

Or perhaps you mean the forum where he does nothing but insult BH's "control" over everything anti-cheat? (I guess he forgot about Dragonaid, or whatever it was called that other servers use?)

I read that as well.

Edit: for that freedom of speech comment, this is not the free world. This is the Internet. "Free Speech" is not something that is guaranteed here.

I have no loyalty to her, and only support her because she is either right, or the problem being presented is not as big an issue as the person is presenting it to be (which is what most of this argument seems to be about)

Meh, I guess I mislabel you as one. You are the only other moderator that argues along side Crimson, for the most part. There's Blazer, but he only contributes his 'wit' to the situation (as I've said too many times now).

Oh, the bliss that comes with such ignorance. You must be one happy mother fucker, because you sure are fucking stupid. If you dare think I'm scared of Crimson or worship her, it'd be wise for you to see the dissent I've had towards the forums' administration over the past few years. The reason why I'm not banned? It's because Crimson doesn't ban for being against policy, and I also am not an unintelligible idiot spouting off at the mouth because I have this misunderstanding that I don't have to obey rules set for me by those who control the forums.

It's absolutely hilarious what is going on over there.

Insults BHS and BI, creates a poll to make himself look good, has a poll asking if people have been "unfairly censored" here.

Not to mention creating a post about being banned here where he openly LIES to his user base!

It's absolutely hilarious!

If all it took was to offend Crimson to be banned, I would have been banned LONG ago. We've outright (though very politically) insulted each other in various discussion. Most about God, I admit.

As you are well aware, this discussion with fl00d3d went on for quite a while. It wasn't until a forum rule was broken that he was banned. Had that rule not been broken, he would most likely still be here insulting away.

Had it simply been about offending Crimson, I doubt fl00d3d would have lasted as long as he did.

So basically you are saying that you don't really know who I've banned but I probably haven't posted a reason why all the time? Doesn't that make your argument a little weak?

Secondly, why should I post an explanation every time? Sometimes, no explanation is necessary. If I explain the reason, it's a favor to you and a CYA tactic so that the victim is not so easily able to just go make up his own story about why he was banned. In this case, he is probably running around saying that I couldn't handle the truth and I'm a psycho bitch and I'm a Hitler-esque dictator, while I can post that he broke rules X, Y, and Z, and I allowed him to do so until he started making blatant threats to release RenGuard source. He obviously thought, in his anger, that I would cave to his threats and do what he wanted me to do, but I called his bluff. I went ahead and banned him and he sheepishly admitted a day or two later that he never had any intention of doing so.

The funny thing, though his actions easily warrant a permanent ban, he is in fact able to try again in about 27 days when his temporary ban expires.

Not smart really...

A two year old can grasp simplme concepts of TV, Remote.

Shoe, Tieing them.

Etc.

Its different in this case, IQ has to do witha combination of things, its more or less, Grasping the situation on hand, and thinking of alternate ways of getting the answer.

More or less, outside the box.

We had a debate about this in my school, I went with my arguement all the way to the finals. Until the teacher blows me away with the above statement.

cheekay77 wrote on Tue, 12 June 2007 19:57Crimson wrote on Tue, 12 June 2007 21:06So you don't believe that the ability to easily grasp concepts and learn and retain knowledge makes you smart?

Not smart really...

A two year old can grasp simple concepts of TV, Remote.

Shoe, Tying them.

Etc.

Its different in this case, IQ has to do with a combination of things, its more or less, Grasping the situation on hand, and thinking of alternate ways of getting the answer.

More or less, outside the box.

We had a debate about this in my school, I went with my argument all the way to the finals. Until the teacher blows me away with the above statement.

Well, you can say whatever you want, but "smart" is not an exactly-defined word. I use smart to mean that they have a high IQ and ability to comprehend concepts and retain knowledge. Ignorance is not having the knowledge at all. You can be very smart, but ignorant on a certain topic, subject, or concept. If you are smart, however, you can become not-ignorant easier than someone who isn't smart.

IQ isn't some bullshit number, it's a number that's been used for quite a while as a relative comparison between people to determine their cognitive skills. I wouldn't, however, put much stock in a free internet test for it.

The argument about having a higher iq is getting annoying and immature. It's like when I was in third grade and kids always thought that whoever touches some garbage last has to throw it away or something... :/ That was annoying though.

There's a difference between IQ and "will to learn". People with a higher IQ and a good "will to learn" will be smarter than other people with the same "will to learn" and a lower IQ.

IQ Range Classification

140 and over Genius or near genius
120-140 Very superior intelligence
110-120 Superior intelligence
90-110 Normal or average intelligence
80-90 Dullness
70-80 Borderline deficiency
Below 70 Definite feeble-mindedness

I doubt anyone on these forums has 140+, especially not the ones saying they do. Also the measuring methods can be questioned. How was it measured, how many times you did an IQ test, ... More you take IQ tests, better you get at them. That doesn't mean you have a higher IQ though, it just means the test is biased.

The most correct tests would be the ones you took as a kid, I think. And NOT an Internet test...

"Hot issues - "About this forum""This forum will be, for all intents and purposes, unmoderated. Though these forums, and also the internet, do not guarantee you freedom of speech, American or not, you will pretty much have it in here, so long as it's not abused. You will be contacted privately if you get out of hand.

^ Hahahaha

Edit: And with that, I leave this God-forsaken thread.

We have "preschool" available, but we start Kindergarten (the first of 13 years of schooling) when you reach 5. The rule here is that you must be 5 by the September 1st of the school year (which starts in the fall) you want to start in.

I was only 4, but I already had been reading for a couple of years and my parents wanted me to start early, which required a lot of testing... which I passed.

Earlier someone said I'm only backing a banning of morons because I'm scared of Crimson? That doesn't make much sense seeing as I don't play Renegade anymore. About the only ties I have to Crimson are these forums.

Nice try though.

Oh, and for the record: Freedom of speech only applies on forums if the administrator wills it.

A little thought experiment here:

The USA is known as the biggest free speech country stuff thing. Lets see what would happen if you'd announce your going to blow up the white house or the pentagon(and theoretically have the means too). Do you seriously think they would just give you whatever you want? No of course they'd throw you in jail.

Something similar happened to fl00ded. You can say whatever you want on renforums, but threatening to release the renguard source means your out to harm the community. And since there is no prison, well crimson banned him.

Tell me, those guys who are defending FI00d3d, do you actually know why he was banned? (the first post will tell you)

He was banned because he broke several rules, some of which were abusive to the forum administrators. Think of it this way, if you were the administrator of these forums and Crimson came along and started braking rules and insulting you would you ban her?

I thought so. But i fail to see why FI00d3d is so different in your eyes. Don't forget you have no matter in the issue whether you're defending him or not. You do not say who gets banned and who doesn't. The majority of the people here who actually give a damn about this community dislike the way he's been acting against other people (Matix and Kamuix to name two) is enough to ban him in my eyes, because insulting other members is against the rules.

This ban is perfectly acceptable. You just need to learn how to get along with it. Do something while you wait for your 'savior' to return, apart from bashing the people who banned/agreed to ban him.

Boo.. 143, about the same time period. Though never on any "official" exam. (Long story short, when I first heard of Scientology, I thought it was a new branch of science. They were giving out free IQ exams) However, I have done "IQ tests" from multiple sources, and my scores were consistent.

My parents had thought about having me take an IQ test, but they never did. I really wish they would have. They knew I was a brilliant mind, but now I have no real way to prove it other than from some BS online IQ test.

For those of you bitching about me doing the "well my IQ is higher" is because the moron said he took a test and got a 104, thinking that means anything. I just had to shove the same arrogance down his throat. Go it? Good.

Edit: Oh, lock away!
