Should've thought of that before you tried to bypass Renguard. Sorry. Save your pocket money for a couple of weeks, then explain to your dad why you need to borrow his credit card.

certainly they are allowed to do this. I wanted more nicknames for more nicknames bracuht one another Ip I think, I went to the side (I should / may call them?) And looked around me. I endeckte Exploit nickname or how heist. I ladetete it and put everything, Dannach I tried it, however, everything also clapped I did not come anyhow to server lists I have extinguished it and to me have downloaded the Ip router (?), then likewise from the side, There I have as put sachen as I thought them be right, however, also this did not go. Do not know where renguard me has got endweder with the Nicknames or with the Ip router. So I have gecheatet because of more nicknames. But I thought one gets only a warning from renguard (Wrong thought <. <) Hoping this answers her question?

I would have to say that cheating is cheating, but the level of violation is high, then they can't be fixed with "just" a warning.

The MOTD is translated into various languages by a team of voluenteers (can't spell)

Guess the same goes for other parts of Renguard.
