Recent attacks in the UK, both England and Scotland have proven that no-one is safe. Over the weekend Scotland has seen Glasgow Airport come under attack, then we had a foiled attack at the next major hospital nearest to the same Airport. Suspects have been arrested in England.....An attempted chemical incident on one of the major motorways in England.

What should we do with the arrested? (90% severe burns to one of them....hes dead in a few days)

I have been informed (not reliably at the moment) that France deports terrorists back to the country of origin. ie if the terrorist is born in France, they then look at the parents, grandparents and so on until a country of origin is established.

On this note, I would send every Muslim good or bad, suspect or otherwise back to their country of origin. It will not happen but a place to begin with, is the 1500 suspects already known to the Government.

Do not sit and think that these attacks will not personally affect you or your family, it will.

I was on duty in the Fire Station when the call came in to say there was a terrorist attack on the Airport. Not nice.

My mate was also flying out to Ibiza from the same airport, several hours later, not a chance in hell. Glasgow City centre was devoid of party-goers on Saturday night following the attack.

This is what fear does to the country.

So how would you deal with the threat or how "are" you dealing with it?

This incident also comes at a time when many thousands of Britons are eagerly awaiting the Formula One British Grand Prix next weekend. Fucking terrorist apes.

IMO, these fucking Muslims, good or bad, must be deported from the western hemisphere. Send them back to their country of origin and keep it that way.

How to punish them? Just gouge their eyes out...think about it. IMO, that's the worst punishment anyone can have.

whats the point in sending them back to their own country?

They will just sneak back into english, - also, i wouldnt really call that a punishment would you?

and yes spooky, i LOVE that idea! =D another thing would be to line them all up, and dig bullets into pigs blood and then shoot them. As Terrorists believe that if they die while in contact with pigs blood they are sent to hell.

Although unethical, the pig blood thing would probably be the only thing that has any effect.

Agreed, it's all about marketing... If the terrorists realize that no one is paying attention to their attacks, they'll eventually stop attacking and seek a new plan to get people's attention. Maybe they'll think of large picket lines with thousands of men outside embassys, something where no one gets hurt, but everyone gets fucking annoyed at.

I think the fact that terrorist hate everyone but themselves means we are all in danger, yes even Canada, Mexico, Caribbean,.....maybe Antarctica....and every other country/continent on earth because...we dont "agree" with their "plan" or "ideology" it's just a matter of time before they hit another unsuspecting spot.

off topic

I'm still all for nuking everything like people all said back after 9/11, except use small nukes that wont kill civilians....just....small areas where terrorist hide and all...

I had forgot a pocket knife in the front pouch of my backpack on my way back from England two summers ago, and it went though airport security at Heathrow no problem. Only at Montreal airport did it get detected and thrown into a big bin with other stuff that's not allowed.

Airport security is a joke in my opinion, but I'm still angry that I forgot that knife in there. At least it didn't get detected in England, that would have been bad probably.

If only this was possible.

I would deport all Muslims, Pakistanis, Seiks etc and all associated family back to country of origin (as previously mentioned). Pa*i bashing, muslim bashing and so on would become a British, publically accepted sport, tolerated by all walks of life.

Anyone found in our country with the associated skin tone and language, would then be bashed on sight until dead. I think that would get the message across that they are not wanted.

For every one of them returned to their original country, Britain would accept any other white person on a like for like basis ie Doctor for Doctor etc along with that family. Any white will do....Dutch, German, Kiwi, Aussie etc.

If you are Chinese, Turkish or Italian and own a shop that provides a carry-out service for kebabs etc, then this will entitle you to stay.

Corner shops will be owned by white people and must stay open until at least 9pm for a loaf of bread and a pint of milk. That way you can have fresh bread for your pieces in the morning.

OHHHHHH!!!!!! for wishful thinking

OOPS! Between yesterday and this morning, 3 suspect cars have blown up and removed from the scene of crime. 1 from a local mosque that I am sure harbours fugitives and terrorists alike. 2 cars from the same hospital that was attacked, have been blown up and removed by forensics.

The hospital is 5 miles from me, the mosque 4 miles. It is happening on my doorstep, thank fuck I am now off duty for another 4 days. Time to let the other firefighters worry about it.

It was a terrorist attack by an Iraqui (*cough* muslim) and thats what counts. All in the name of Allah.

Send them all home doused in pigs blood, with a hole in the belly after being spun around on a Catherine Wheel with one eye left in their head to see what happens.

Sounds good to me.

Racist? Too fucking right when this shit happens on your doorstep. My airport! My hospital.....my fucking life as a Fire-Fighter attending the suspect cars. So you hide behind your Mums skirt like a good 12 year old kid instead of seeing what is really happening and leave this shit to the real men that have to deal with problem first hand. Open your eyes to terrorism for it will hit you one way or another. 9/11 was a start in the US then England, UK. Now its in Scotland, UK.

What country next!!! Australia has just apprehended a suspect. He is a doctor that only recently entered the country from a Muslim nation.

Oh yeah!!! Its global, all right.

I think some people (Not giving names lol) are blowing this terrorism business way out of proportion.

All reigion in some way or the other promotes violence and that is why i think religion is a load of bullcrap.

Christianity has blood on it's hands (and it still does, not all christians are westerners), Islam has blood on it's hands. Almost all religions do.

Terrorism doesn't have a race or colour. Yet people are associating terrorism these days with "Islam" which makes me wonder if this war is really the "muslims vs christians" thing all over again.

You are truly an idiot then.

If you truly expected everyone to just answer what they would do, without discussing it then you are mistaken.

People will say what they would do, which will (and has) caused people to question/discuss why, and since people have said they'd do things that are racist, it was inevitable for the topic to stray a little...moral of the story...don't be so naive...

Don't set a 'rule' for a topic if you don't go by it yourself:

You asked a couple of questions, and gave alot of points up for discussions. Those points are marked red, the questions green, and your answer to the question in blue.

You come to a discussion forum (to the debate section too) expecting a straight answer and then for people to leave?

You want that, there wouldn't be anything up for debate, and to get that, you'd need to present a straight question. (IE: What did you have for breakfast today?)

I think some people (Not giving names lol) are blowing this terrorism business way out of proportion.

All reigion in some way or the other promotes violence and that is why i think religion is a load of bullcrap.

Christianity has blood on it's hands (and it still does, not all christians are westerners), Islam has blood on it's hands. Almost all religions do.

Terrorism doesn't have a race or colour. Yet people are associating terrorism these days with "Islam" which makes me wonder if this war is really the "muslims vs christians" thing all over again.

Just my 2 cents anyways.

As usual Halo fucks up the topic. What part of "What would you do" is so hard to comprehend?

Who gives a fuck whos to blame? All I asked is what to do with the Terrorists. Is that so hard to understand?

There aren't enough terrorists in Europe so obviously there are no special prisons for them...

Instead of deporting every non-white person from England why not let the terrorists rot in Jail for the rest of their lives with all the other crooks? I mean, it's what happens to criminals in all the civilised countries right?

On another note you should probably calm down and take a walk outside.

All i did was comment on a forum topic...

You come to a discussion forum (to the debate section too) expecting a straight answer and then for people to leave?

You want that, there wouldn't be anything up for debate, and to get that, you'd need to present a straight question. (IE: What did you have for breakfast today?)

Shall I be the teacher for you whilst acting like a petulant child?

What would a terrorist have for breakfast today?

What would you do to a terrorist after having breakfast today?

What would you do to a terrorist after having breakfast today whilst sitting in the Airport waiting to go on holiday?

How hard is that? Only Ancient need answer what his actions would be. Thats all I asked for. Actions from yourselfs and not a group discussion like you would have in school. Picture the scene as the teacher asks you one of the 3 questions above:

Now Ancient, "I want you to answer one of those questions", says the teacher.

"Hmmm" says Ancient whilst thinking out loud. Then comes his reply "Please Sir, I need to throw open the question for discussion to the class".

"Why", asks teacher.

"Sir, I do not have any of my own thoughts therefore I need to discuss and reply once I find out what the others think. Meanwhile I will sit on the fence until the discussion is finished".

Ancient it is very easy. I ask only that you give an action of what you would like to see happen, to terrorists in your country. Do not discuss, just answer.

Imagine that, but at a debate where things are thrown open for discussion where you are supposed to debate things and throw ideas around.

Until you understand that key word, debate, you'll carry on posting in ignorance.

Good-day.

Hi I think all people from Glasgow should be sent to a far off place because I don't like any of them because they come from Glasgow.

Don't reply to this though, just ignore it and how stupid it sounds and carry on with answering the original question.

puddle_splasher wrote on Mon, 02 July 2007 03:13Recent attacks in the UK, both England and Scotland have proven that no-one is safe.

So how would you deal with the threat or how "are" you dealing with it?

Does that statement ask for a discussion or a debate? I know it does not. Why? because I wrote the fucking thing.
