not bad, did you start making your own models? not to be flamish, but i remeber seeing a while back that your models were just like the ones in the Westwood mod art. Wouldn't want to use those, as those reach 10000-20000 polys, and could easy lag it up hello everybody out there. we (the renegade-planet modding team "chronowar") have got made a new very good ingame video. it is showing all units and an exklusiv map. the download link do you find in the news of www.chronowar.deto to view the video you need the newest version of DivX: DivX 5.03. you can get it at www.divx.com.download and enjoy it.cumanufakto-----The Co-Leader of Chronowar [ February 13, 2003, 08:21: Message edited by: manufakto ]
