The topic sums it up. As you know the calico machine gun was seen in 2 tiberium dawn videos, Where a gdi light infantry shot a poorly armed noddy . But I thought that I'll show you my work and will ask for anyone to spot pyhical errors.

-- Yes, I know i streched it, it will be fixed

Pic I used to make this

Please note this is still a work in process.

Also included is a simple mesh with no bones in w3d format.

Right this second, im am uv mapping it.

Changes I made

- 1. added groves to the barrel
- 2. better grips
- 3. redid the stock
- 4. resized it to renegades scale
- 5. added a bolt and other mechinims
