Heyy.

(For Multiplayer)

I've played the game previously & have created new accounts before, but now, I've started (Or want to start!) replaying & everytime time I try create a new account it just comes up "Page failed to load or is invalid." I don't have an account ATM, so can't play the multiplayer.

Its Foookin' annoyin! Any suggestions? My Firewall doesn't seem to be blocking anything I've checked.

Help x

That system doesn't work anymore. Steps as follows:

Username: Whatever you want Password: Whatever you want login and if the account name isn't taken then it will be created.

Yeah, what a great new system XWIS made. It's so easy to follow and not confusing at all for someone new to Renegade.

Up to 9 characters long for the name, has to be 8 character password.

I will add this. The "Login" button will highlight only after the password has 8 characters. LOL...I had a lot of trouble figuring that one out when I was setting up my account several months back.

Please use the search feature in future. There has been many topics on creating new Renegade accounts.

Yes I noticed that. It's VERY messed up. In other words: Don't go there.

Yeah, and I (we) are tired of reverting the damned thing.
