I'm counting the minutes until someone posts saying "PS3 SUXX MASSIVE XOBX IS BETER THAN ALL" or something. I haven't got one, although I wouldn't mind one just to see how well it ran Linux.

Then again, I also want a 360 for Halo 3, and a Wii because they're just awesome.

Depends on the firmware. (I think it does anyway.)

Anyhow.. I don't have one so I'll get out of this topic.

DO NOT GET FEAR!

On the PC, it fucking rocks. They fucked it up hard core on the PS3. It looks like shit. Somehow they found out a way for it to chug the PS3. The controles are clunky.

I'm going to sell mine.

On a side note: You will see me playing vegas most of the time because it is the single greatest game ever created.

Nope. I don't even know your msn address. I am guessing that the guy had same name as me? I guess I should have picked more unique name.
