I'm hoping to do some clan battles soon with my new clan. Therefore we all need a good voice chat program. What is the best FREE voice chat program out there?

Skype (in terms of quality), however it has its limitations.

TS!

TS!

TS!

TS!

TS!

TS!

As it's the most widely used VOIP software out there (at least I think)

TeamSpeak: Much easier to setup as a server

Ventrilo: Harder to setup, but I believe the sound quality is better?

Change the codec in the options menu for Teamspeak and you have better quality than vent.

TS's default Codec sucks if you ask me.

TS and Ventrillo both have their advantages. I use teamspeak as I'm used to it .

Edit: if you don't have a server, then ask someone if you can use a teamspeak channel from their server.

Yeah I wouldn't use TSO unless you have a somewhat good system as its well known that TSO will hammer your FPS ingame.

TeamSpeak is more widley used and known however its best codec is not really that good. You can hear people ok with it, just don't expect to be top noch quality.

Vent is a good VOIP and is abit harder to setup however it has far better quality over TS.

So I downloaded Teamspeak, but I'm 100% clueless as to how it works. Any pointers?
