Today, playing in Jelly [RA], when it says, "Bluethen3 has joined the game fighting for GDI", next second, "Phantom: Player Bluethen3 BANNED on xxxx for Invisibility+fly".

Wow, who was right. For single player eh? Why would you need "fly" for SP? But im sure 99% of people didn't beleive your "I make cheats for single player" excuse anyway. Jelly has all logs and IPs.

You're kind of like a knat that doesn't get the hint when it gets swatted away a few times.

I joined cause i was bored and got banned... apparently they actually believed some of the accusers. I don't think Invisibility+fly can't be done on multiplayer, and I did that on singleplayer for experimentations.

Now stfu about me already.

You guys think it's bad to experiment on singleplayer, but really you should be banning people that experiment online in public servers!

You can't make yourself invisible to other players in MP, and if you tried to use the fly script you would just keep lagging back to the ground when the server refreshed your position.

Flying and being invisible isn't possible end of discussion. The position of the actual player object is calculated by the server.

Unfortunately it IS possible to be invisible and fly in multiplayer.

Stealth Black Hand and an aircraft

The person is invisible to the other team, and is capable of flying

This topic is worthless.

Let's discuss the multiple ways you could actually fly and be invisible on Renegade.

SBH + fly LOL

Then again, this topic is dumb. Troop, quit Renegade already. Go play Pinball or something.

Heh, you can still be an SBH while in an aircraft... you are still invisible, just the aircraft isn't

I have seen a stealth crate once before...a Sakura took it got the stealth suit of the SBH.

I don't think it works in vechs, sometimes the crate doesnt let vechs go through, and if they do, then it'd only effect the person in it.

The old version of SSAOW allowed you to do this... The version that had god crate. You could get the stealth crate. It would turn your unit stealth and then if you got in ANY veh it would turn stealth aswell. Obviously this only worked if people had CP1. But still having a Stealth mammy had its good points.

OMFG, look how quickly a topic changes!!! a few replies and it all goes off topic.

Please get back on topic. Blue! are you the same as the rest of them? Can an expert reply (no don't anyone reply) and clarify Blues point? Is it possible to cheat in this way? (no! without confirmation, Blue is innocent until proven guilty, hardly likely, then again, anything is possible)

Hey, even the mightiest fall!!!

To answer your question, yes it is possible for someone to fly around map without being in a flying vehicle. However, this cheat would have to be server side. As thats what detects how the player moves. Exactly the same reason you dont have speed hacks, or failing damage hacks.

Heres a video I have of someone flying. (Poor quality but you get the idea)

<http://video.google.co.uk/videoplay?docid=1002853206706014846&hl=en-GB>

The person was able to do this because he owns the server and has modded his scripts to allow him to do it. It isn't something you or I can download and use it on any server.

If you feel the need to bitch at me for my skins then please do so and I don't care.

Yeah, and was most probably serverside stuff, like the flying crate and whatnot.

Also, nice sbh skin.
