etc etc, and it's still my login.

I was right the ENTIRE time +1million. Not only did I make the connection and provide biatch logs from mmmcrak, but ive known hes cheats since back in 06. Its sad its taken 1yr+ to confirm this just because we got better evidence. Maybe people didn't relize I have never fasly accused anyone of cheating or have ever been provin wrong?

Shot in the dark, but am I the only one who thinks the screenshot is questionably odd? Not defending anyone, as I don't know this StoneCold, but it is possible to use GSA to copy someone's name. They say the IPs match, but where's the proof? Where (who) did the screenshot com from? Why is the website crossed out? There's too many unanswered questions. It's just "heres a screenshot of cheats and the name matches StoneCold's, banned". By the way, that also appears to be a sniper server (TSUGaming maybe from a few of the players' names I recognized there a few days back).

Fucking ageist. How would you know that I'm 12? I've mentioned it in my website, but how would you know that that happened in recent times? My web is pretty old and I have not updated in quite awhile. But yea, don't be ageist, it's just as bad as being a racist. People just don't realise it.

And ask anyone. I'm pretty much smarter than you. Judging by your greatly idiotic posts, you don't look much older than me. I doubt your even older than 10.

and tbh, it's pretty sad that people are on a accused cheater's side against you.
