I wouldn't bother with the old reborn tbh.

The current version is almost completely redone.

Someday whenever it is 100% done, i'd say another 4-6 months and it will be released, they said they will release it as a completed beta and just update it constantly from there, but really compared to now, their ina real real beta where it's buggy, the version they release will be pretty solid.....well thats just my opinion and ideas from what i have read on their forums, announcments and such.

No.

Reborn is under new leadership, Dante.

On topic, I'll get the error "insert cd please blah blah"

So what now?

Another thing, sometimes when you buy a mammoth tank, it disapears when you get in, vehicle walking animation never stops even when the vehicle is off, and the mrls would get stuck and not move for no reason, thats why i uninstalled the old reborn and am waiting for the offical good release which will make renegade once agaian shiinnnneee

SHIIIIIINNNNEEEE

I use to. I was amazed by the amount of people who played it in. Then it died during the summer lol. I had it going last year I believe. It was named !-EVO-Gamers.com :: All Out War-!

It was fun running it till it died lol. If many are interested, I can start it back up again.

I'll heard someone used the scud storm game.exe for this and it worked.

Might try that, if I'll can find a good scud storm download, I'll remember fileplanet.com having it.

sorry for double post, but I got it to work   what you do is, put the map files into your APB data, get scripts (any kind) then try running it, if not working still, delete some of the files it came with, use an install on it incase it was a overwritten file, and then use the originals for it, to make it compatible, for some reason, I believe its not compatible with TFD because of its programing, making it the only mod (believe me I know) the only mod that doesn't work with TFD

Alright this will be a step by step to get the old Reborn working with NO CD (renegade). Download and install these programs first (in order). (follow there instructions for installation).

1.Reborn:
http://www.game-maps.net/?action=file&id=908

2.A Path Beyond (APB):
http://commandandconquer.filefront.com/file/;82877

3.Safe Disc 2 Cleaner (stand alone exe needs no install):
http://www.gameburnworld.com/dl/dl3.php?file=Safedisc2Cleanerv1.2.0.zip

4.Scripts (3.4.4) (Install in the root directory of Reborn):
http://www.game-maps.net/?action=file&id=828

Alright now:
1. Now that you have all your goodies installed, use the "Safe Disc 2 Cleaner" to "unwrap" and go to the directory of where you installed reborn ("c:\program files\reborn" is the default).
2. Locate "game.exe" and "open" the file it should automaticly fix the file and rename it to "SD2cleaned.exe".
3. At this point go to the directory via windows explorer (my computer) and make a copy of "game.exe" to the desktop (just in case) and now rename "SD2cleaned.exe" to "game.exe"
4. Try running the game via "game.exe" does it work? Well if it complains about "mss32.dll" do this (if it does run don't do this, but if you do your just wasting your time). REMEMBER TO ONLY USE GAME.EXE AND CREATE NEW SHORT CUTS (TO GAME.EXE), THE ORIGINAL DESKTOP/START MENU SHORT CUTS WILL NOT WORK!! (sorry for the yelling cough)
5. Go to your install of A path beyond (the root directory) via My Computer and copy the files mss32.dll, binkw32.dll and bandtest.dll to the Reborn main directory. This should clear up that error, if not also make a copy of these files to the C:\windows\system32 folder. Now try again (useing game.exe), it all should work.

This should get the old reborn working and all the maps to show up and selectible. This works with The First Decade, and in theory should work for most people (theory remember). Good luck, hope this works for you,

-ElectroBS

You phail, I copied the First Decade Game.exe and it worked perfectly, without cd. Theres no reason as to why it shoudn't work, unless it was HEX edited, which I doubt it was.
