My computer has carked it today due to a collection of downloaders and trojans. I can't do anything about it except format and reinstall everything but i want to notify the forums about this as i think it has been on my computer for some time and i may have uploaded something malicious.

Re-installed from scratch with the windows cd dell provided me with.

Wow, now it takes 10 secs to start up.

I had Trojan.Vundo Darvit.

Now to reinstall renegade..... boredom kicks in

EDIT: Great, i need a sound driver now.

Any suggestions? No i don't have a sound card.
