My renguard keeps saying...

Welcome to renguard angelfan1..
To play renegade click Renegade...
you've been disconnected from renguard angelfan1..

Are you using any firewalls? Try allowing "game.exe" (In C:\westwood\Renegade\)

We need more info. When does it say this? This seems like the normal message when you close renegade. So maybe your renegade instance crashes, so renguard just finishes its own job as well.

It says
You have been disconnected from Renguard angelfan1....

Before I even get to play
