Well I was thinking and playing a little, and it hit me! You can own with the cheap infantry and a lotta people don't expect it.

On NOD some good characters are:

- *Chemical Warrior
 - *Flametrooper
 - *Officer
 - *Rocket Solider Officer

On GDI some characters are:

- *Sydney (Tiberium Auto Rifle)
 - *Officer
 - *Grenadier
 - *Rocket solider Officer

What do you guys think?

Ummmmm, that is a bit of a stretch. It depends on how close you are to the infantry. If you were super close to a 1000 credit character it takes like 2-3 shots.

Nothing like grabbing an 'officer' to mow down infantry, and then having your opponents accuse you of "cheating"

And a chem warrior on Volcano equals near-instant mayhem.

I once owned several characters with a shotgunner when I was poor, I had too many guns so I kept owning and owning, then a sbh shot me with a ramjet, one shot killed me. I had almost every gun except chem sprayer and grenadier gun.

Well I've heard that a bullet to the head with a shotgunner doesn't always kill, infact, I got I direct shot on someone that was hiding behind a wall and it took off maybe 5 health at most.

1 shotgun blast to the head kills any character.

LOL...when I got Renegade, I had fun being the GDI shotgunner and playing Multiplayer Practice. I go to the Nod tunnels and "flash" the Mendoza so he would come after me. I would then hide in the tunnel and when he comes up, I kill him with 1 shot to his thick ugly head...LOL.

Seriously though, my best character for infantry rape (other then snipers) are Normal Soldiers and Shotgunners.

Is theGDI rifle the first one? Or does this depend on Nod/GDI Soldier?

OK...

The GDI Rifle shoots out YELLOW tracers.
The Nod Rifle shoots out RED tracers.

If you are Nod soldier, then your FIRST rifle is the Nod Rifle (RED tracers). If you pick up GDI Rifle, then it will be the second one.

It works the same way for the GDI soldier.

I agree but If I am on GDI i will live with a Soilder or a Shotgunner... Soilder most of the time since a GDI soldier does more damage then a Nod Soldier does...

SBH's are easy as hell to find when you know how to listen for their foot steps... I get blamed of cheating pretty often because an SBH is stupid enough to walk somewhere around me and i hear the footsteps and i see nothing on the radar... or they just stand there looking at you thinking I cant see them and BAM 500 snipe in the head...

LaserChainGunnars are easy to take care of as well. even with a GDI soldier. as I said, the GDI Soldiers do more damage then NOD. and most of NOD's heads are easier targets becuase of the black and red and some of them have "larger" heads then their GDI counterpart...

Chem Troopers are the prime example of this. no mater what Infantry you are, a Chem trooper is the easiest to kill... that head that is like 2x the size of an sbh's head...
