Not sure if this has anything to do with cp1, but right after i finished downloading it, all my writing started being like this:

In game and out of game, i downloaded other skins too, so i'm not sure what it could be, but if it isn't cp1 even, how do i fix it?

What exactly do you mean ?

You can't read the text ? Then you should open the console ingame (F8) and type screen_uv_bias. That should work.
