I know alot of people who have cheated in such a way it is sick!
Like one guy he kept going to a server and practically wiped out the whole enemy team using Wallhack, Bighead hack, noname hack and he kept doing so just by changing his I.P address....
Even my BRO now uses the Big Head hack now!
It is such a cheat, i have watched him run round on multiple servers shooting people in the GIANT comical heads that he has hacked.....i mean it is unbelievable how unaware people are, he had a STAT of 0 Death 34 Kills on 1 server, i mean it's unnatural for someone not even to suspect he's cheating!

He downloaded some sorta W3D Filles and placed em in a Directory....and bingo that was it....
I mean hacking comes in so many different forms nowadays, i have seen almost all of the hacks in action!
It is sickening i am disgusted by how people resort to cheating in this way!!

Something has to be done to stop cheaters like my Brother!
It is wat 2 easy to cheat now and not get caught....please someone tell me there is a way we can Defend again cheats like Big Heads Hack!

there is really only renguard which helps somewhat but not a whole lot, renguard pretty much just guarantees you won't be charged with cheating, and people that love and play renegade and wish to keep it cheat have tried and tried but there will always be people(that clearly has no life) who will always make cheats and people that will use them

P.S. I'm sure someone will tell some more if this is not enough to tell you people have tried really hard to stop this

Either find the hacked file, or totally reinstall Renegade, and delete all his internet favorites so he won't remember where to find the file.

And then hit him.

Big Head hacks dont work these days.

BIATCH blocks it.

No need to hit him really, he has a seperate comp so if they BAN him which i hope they BAN him then i can still play on Servers that he can't +Anyways, BIATCH...? I have something like that in my RenegadeFDS somewhere....it's some sorta Anti-Cheat aint it?

Anyways, there isn't much effort to prevent it though is there....all servers should run Anti-Cheat i mean my BRO went in and out of servers like he owned emm and killed people with a shitty 500 sniper or even a shotgun at close range with 1 shot in the GIANT heads that are like the size of a Tree

I am so dissappointed in him! He said "I don't care if it's a cheat or a hack, loads of people cheat!"

He always complained that in SniperFights people were using Aimbots on him and that they were using BigHEads hack on him....

If you and your "BRO" have the same IP, yeah, you're getting banned, too.

As for the topic itself, saying you've lived under a rock for about 5 years would be an understatement.

Completely agree. And yeah, if you live in the same house, he gets, banned, you both get banned. Oh, and he WILL get banned, as BIATCH detects bigheads.

That has to be the worst post concerning Renegade I've ever seen. Shotguns are supposed to be used at close range, and they are supposed to KILL in one shot at close range. What the hell is a "shitty 500 sniper", the best snipers in Renegade swear by it.

Your average kill count per game is about three, right?

Dude when you're trying to "raise awareness of cheating", you're preaching to the choir here. We know all about it.

What? No... I do that all the time and I don't have any mods on my game. Not even a skin... it really isn't that hard to get those kind of scores..

Simply play on a large server and use guerrilla tactics. Easiest to do it with an Orca. But you are right, people do suspect cheating when they see scores like that... which is why I always run Fraps when I play Renegade. Someone says I'm cheating, I offer to make a video of me playing for the next 10 min proving that I'm not... sure it is a hassle, but people don't really know how to find cheaters anymore

I'm not aware of any GOOD servers that you could get away with moth cheats. Most servers run prgorams that alert mods of people using damage hacks, superbodies and bighead. There's probably more but i'm not fully aware of the list. It's a lot harder to cheat now than 2-3 years ago. Why don't you just uninstall his Renegade folder and everything in it until he stops?

Let it be known that bat66wat6 is trying to make his own cheats to "use" against his brother.

How sad.

This topic is old now. I just don't care. Screw it. If people can hack and cheat and ruin a game this easy, let em. Renegade is old. Soon in maybe 2 years, it will be dead.

LOCK, this Topic!

Oh like you?

Asking an respected modder to help you make cheats so you can get back at your brother is a NO GO.
