Then again, if you play the stock market, buying shares in Canadian Pharma is sure to give you wood. It does for me.

Thoes are the old RxD links, I am talking about RxD 3.0

Okay here is what RxD is, install the renegade demo onto your computer so you have the crapy C&C_Under map. Now go to the RxD link, LINK HERE and download and install the RxD client. RxD is a program that changes the standard renegade demo and adds ALL of the multiplayer maps like Islands-Mesa-Complex-Canyon-Field, adds brenbot, full lan support, multiplayer practice, WOL, up-to-date scripts and bhs and all of the other DLL's. I will post some screenies soon.

You are so stupid...ever heard of just using the full version? Plus you can't play with people with full version since they are different .exes

k here are the answers to all of your problems

RxD stands for "Renegade Extended Demo". It is a mod for renegade demo. Using RxD, demo players can play demo map (c&c_under) and full version maps. RxD installation contains windows client rxd_sac, tweaked full version renegade maps, customized weapons, maps, vehicles and new crates etc. The new weapons are called "pimped weapons" and they are only available via spawn. Many of the rxd teaks are not available in full version. The rxd team is constantly developing new features. There had been 3 versions of rxd so far. rxd 1.0, 2.0 and the latest 3.0 (called rxd continuum) which features latest customized ssgm dll and a customized brenbot 1.5. They also have a unique client called "rxd client or rxd_sac". It is similar to rengaurd. There is also full featured anticheat under development. RxD has its own ladder and is tied to ingame ranks and a very active rxd community.

and to answer why bother modding demo ?

slave wrote :

Quote:...Because it is extremely easy to apply modifications client side. The demo only weights about 90mb, and contains the absolute basics of files required to play Renegade. It's the perfect playground to experiment with Renegade. If we were to try the same at full version, it would be a massive pain and most efforts would go unnoticed. The demo has a much higher server/player ratio, and therefor a relatively bigger community.

About the pirated part. Do realise that a lot of us do legally own the full version. It's basically a copy paste job from folder to folder, with a nice blend of vanilla and a seperate room on Gamespy. Call us cheap for not being able to afford 5$, but do know that we put our own time and money in the maintainance of the server.

And indeed, some people playing rxd do not have a legit copy of renegade. If you want to cry about it to EA, be my guest, if that is what makes you happy. We are not entirely happy with this fact either, but it's doing noone any real harm, not even EA.

Instead of developing your own anti-cheat for Renegade demo, why not help Black Hand Studios in making a better anti-cheat for Full Version Renegade? Since they seem similar anyways.

few reasons :

1. not compatible with rxd because rxd files are differnt from full version files
2. gives rxd complete freedom in what can be achieved with anticheat.
3. no overhead of communicating with regard network. The bot handles everything on server side.
4. updatable anytime we want via rxd update feature (in development)
5. there are some hacks out there to bypass u know wat therefore we dont feel comfortable using it.
6. to prove it can be done
7. learn how anticheat works
8. just for fun

Any way RxD anticheat does not kick you for skins or sounds or anything, but there it will kick you for an objects.ddb and big heads/body. And the stuff that gets by Renguard does not work for demo so yeah, demo is almost interially cheat proof. You now know so much about RxD that it is scary! You could be a creepy Russian stalker.

No game is uncheatable. Just some games are hard to get by their anti-cheats, it can still be done.

If they wanted to, the users who create cheats and bypasses for Ren 1.037 can do it for the demo with ease.

But the people that do that are to lazy and they just don't care to, so they don't do it for the demo, becuae they assume that nobody plays demo and that they just don't do it.

Heck, i could 'whip' one up myself... And it's been a good 1.5 years since i last used LE.

But i'm not going to because i have a career to look after, and building internals to create for AR...
