The R is custom made of course and the Command&Conquer Renegade was made with a font called "Astrolyte". One of my favourite ones^^

Thy mates. It was quick idea which came to my mind^^

Btw I made an .ico out of my WP which you can use instead of the old Renegade desktopicon.

I also made some Vista-Versions but I don't have Vista for testing if that looks good.

Hmm yea maybe because I made the two vista-icons only 256x256. They are scaled down in your screen and as a consequence the look so....not good^^ Another vista user said to me I have to pack also the smaller resolutions into the iconfiles.

Let Vista display the full 256x256 resolution of that icon. Maybe I fix that later with the lower resolutions.

I had to modify it to fit, but it works perfectly, thanks

Cell Phone pic... but anyway...

Also the Icon for Renegade in my opinion would look better if it was angled just like you have the R angled in the desktop image. Just my opinion.
