Where can I download them?

Which ones are available and what do they look like?

I didn't mean hud skins, I meant the huds that everyone is showing off, those new ones with working radar and such.

Oh fine, fuck it. I will make one. It will not be as cool as silent kane's one. But it will be as good as Scrin's at the very least.

I will also make a tutorial for you to make your own one.

I don't care if people download this one, it's pretty basic so you can change it around later if you want something fancier.

Download: <http://www.megaupload.com/?d=ERPE0CMA>

To install, put all the files into Renegade's Data folder. It will also only display correctly at 1280x1024 resolution.
