I have just recently installed C&C Renegade, I downloaded the renguard program to play online. when I start the program everything loads up perfectly renguard tells me Ive logged on to server #1. So I go to play on the net on westwood online and go to play, it tells me Im not logged on a server. How do I fix this problem. also I did have this game on a different comp, but I moved to a new country and have forgotten my login name and password, how do I recover this info? Any help would be great. for Im dying to whoop some A@# on the net!

Thx DD
