Hey guy just recently when I was in game I pressed f2 to call up the chat window and nothing happened. Then I tried to press f3 and still nothing came up. This is weird cause one day it worked and the next it doesn't. F1 gets called up fine but no chat please help.

(in case if it matters im running windows xp with all the updates and renguard has all the updates as well)

Thank You

Yes I did its at its default settings.I even tried uninstalling renegade, reinstalled it and it still won't let me chat.

Thanks for the quick response Goztow

Did u try changing the chat controls to another key and check if that key then worked? Did u try setting F2 and F3 to secondary key? Are your f2 and f3 keys on your keyboard maybe broken? Did u try with another keyboard?

I reassigned the secondary keys and it now works again. Weird cause the keyboard is fine.

Thank you for your help Goztow
