That one.

Should have waited for the price to drop.

The day I fork out £170 on a mobo is the day pigs fly.

Yes, heat distribution to the fins.

And someone can't do conversions...

Maybe I should chuck one of those in my new computer I'm buying.

Stupid to buy computer parts now, in 1 month the new stuff will come out and all previous prices for older items will plummet. That's what I'm waiting for. (Finally get Dual-core instead of a single 1gig processor:biggrin:)

Might post more accurate specs later.
