No one I know has even been able to dent the C-130. I hit it point blank with MRLS rockets and it didn't get damaged.

In Tiberian Dawn the C130 was invulnerable. I think dj refers to Sydney-Combat Suit and the "Ion Gun".

I remeber a renegade rewind that said something like..."I was standing on the airstrip taking out vehicles as they dropped. This time, I decided to try and shoot the cargo plane, to my surprise, when I detroyed the plane, the tank fell right on my head."not an exact quote, but thats what i remember

I have seen the C-130 go down, but only in single player. It didn't take too much beating from the tank...Hmm we should test this you can lose the plane in Tiberian Dawn, same goes for the drop ships in tiberian sun.once, i lost at least 5 planes with the vehicles and even more after the plane doped its cargo, so you should be able to shoot them down here too, you just need some luck and some good shooting
