Those looks incredibly awesome, but the SAS soldier's hands are bit messed up. Any chance that can be changed?

Awesome as usual my friend.

As a next gun, could you replace the auto rifle with the G36c?

It would be awesome, especially if you could have the stock unfold when the player takes it out. I always loved that gun in BF2

That's a pretty slick SAS operative! Scary looking guy.

Good job as usual, Urimas!

There is this version of that weapon that he did a while ago.

Is there an AK-47 skin? I would love to have one of those.

I remember seeing Urimas make one but can someone please point me to the link? Thanks!
