Just a little reminder in case some of u guys didn't knew it already... The best way to win with either teams is T E A M W O R K!!!! With a little talking and money, you can do anything.... I was on a server tonight where teamwork was not bat, until a couple of players decided to tag along for a quick rush... After that moment, the game was seteled... It took for peopole and some patience but we destroyed a complete base in less than five minutes... And it's quite satisfying!!! hehehe... there's nothing like earing "GDI AGT destroyed" Everybody can do it! just look at the messages going in the top corner of your screen... There is always someone ready for some team attack... unfortunatly, teammates rarely respond... but the game is quite better when we all work together!!!

I quite agree, if there is a moment when the opposition doesn't have a few tanks in front of their base an APC with about four men can do some serious damage. The problem usually lies in that you can't convince anyone to hop into your APC.

Do it again just after that.... and get your apc verry close to the door, that'll make the mines explode... Usualy, when a place is demined, nobody mine it again....

Check out the "Gauranteed win every time always works" thread. It goes on and on about stories, and suggestions of teamwork.

Well, there's definitely something wrong with the chat window... either the message disappears to quick, or its too hard to read, or something, coz it's really hard to keep track of the messages... (eg, I look up at the message, then it disappears coz it had been there for a little while... so i don't get to read it)I think they should have the messages stay there instead of disappearing, and have a scrollbar... otherwise it's nearly impossible sometimes to read the messages
