When you bid in the last seconds on eBay and win? LOL...I sniped em all with a winning bid in the last moment just like the super Havoc that I am!

LOL

This was my first ever snipe on eBay and it was manual too...no n00by software. Man...that was a heated auction!

So heated by the moment that you forgot to mention what precious item sparked such a heated bidding match?

I have a feeling that you didn't just come up with that. I fear that it's probably one of your fantasy items.

Who the fuck says I give two shits about what you buy? I am just remarking on that it wouldn't surprise me if this is an item you desire.

No, it was for my workplace. I was buying this for the company I work for. They have some old data they want to analyze and these are stored in 750MB Zip disks.

And we only have Zip drives that could read upto 250MB. So, we had to buy a 750MB Zip drive...and all were bloody expensive on eBay (and everywhere else) upwards of $60.

I pulled this stunt and got this for $45. And I will get reimbursed hehe!

You did, when you used the words "I" several times in your post under mine.

Just because I mention I wouldn't be surprised that you would desire an item doesn't mean I actually care about it. You said something, and I interpreted it as such. Plus, you pretty much make it known what you think about your sexuality (you're PROUD), so you pretty much open up yourself for comments. If you don't like it, you can just simply stfu about your love for animals and other idiots who pretend they're anything but what they are... human.

See, here's the thing with not being a relativist... I don't have to shut up if I don't like something, either. Realism > Relativism. I just happen to be an extremely opinionated Realist.

It's nothing bad. It just makes you wonder, "did they not realize what that looks like, or was this intentional?"

I agree there is nothing bad in it but does make you wonder which dumbasses made it.

I remember going to a carnival a few years ago and they had those huge inflatable animals. One was a giant inflatable worm, the kids enter through it's mouth and exit out it's accurately shaped and colored asshole!

SO MANY parents nearby were surprised and stunned and some were even furious.

Use tinyurl, it helps avoid links that spoil the punchline
