Why do even the most skilled clan players think that someone was cheating if they get owned bad?

This guy goes by the nick "ExPedro"

I was playing in my homeserver St0rm:

Map: Hourglass

My Vehicle: Med

Character: Hotwire

Location: Left side near tunnel entrance

And I owned this guy (Technician) running into the tunnel with a headshot from a Med tank...just moments later I killed a SBH with 2 shots that was running with him into the tunnel.

It sucks I don't have logs or any SS but he screamed "hax" and left. And he went and added me to the ban list in his server (SK-Gaming Marathon Server). Not that I want to play there lmfaol!

Now anyone who has been playing Renegade should know that a person improves with constant playing. I am sure I am not upto the gaming calibre of clan players. But there is no doubt about it that I have mastered this game. I have been playing this game most of my spare time since January 16, 2007. I am no joke.

It is too easy for me do whatever I feel like doing in game. I have no problems owning with any vehicle or character.

The bad part about all this is that I actually liked this guy "ExPedro" and he is a pretty good sniper. But obviously, if I kill him, then I must be using aimbot!

I just found this moments ago when I tried to enter his server:

These idiots should take their heads out of their asses. This is what happens when you think and claim you are "soo good" and then when some unknown guy kills you and humiliates you, you feel so bad that you abuse the power you have to impose an unfair punishment.

Anyway...this is not a rant...I know what kind of Renegade player I am.

NOTE: I looked for their forum but could not find it. Care to point me to it please? Also, this is not a "unban me" b*tching post! This is just to say how cocky some players are.

That's so true. It helps to keep an open mind as you may never know how good is the competition. If the yardstick to measure how good others are is based on your abilities, then you would be in a bit of a rude surprise when some guy comes craping on you.

I never said "OMG I AM THE BEST RENEGADE PLAYER!!!"
I do all my "talking" in-game by playing with the best of my abilities that I have.

He obviously thought that you were cheating. It's not uncommon for server owners to ban (even pre-ban) "known cheaters".

Starbuzz wrote on Tue, 25 March 2008 11:33Not that I want to play there lmfaol!

Yet you went there, and found yourself banned, which is exactly what he wanted. Why did you play right into his hand?

Starbuzz wrote on Tue, 25 March 2008 11:33I just found this moments ago when I tried to enter his server:

Again, if you knew you were banned, and also don't want to play there (as you said), why did you try to enter his server? Seeing you get "owned" by his ban probably made his day, you should have just stayed away

Starbuzz wrote on Tue, 25 March 2008 11:33NOTE: I looked for their forum but could not find it. Care to point me to it please?

Blazer, you should have read my post clearly.

I said this:

Quote:I was playing in my homeserver St0rm:

And I was also very clear when I said this:

Quote:And he went and added me to the ban list in his server (SK-Gaming Marathon Server).

St0rm server is not SK-Gaming Marathon Imfao! 2 different servers!

I owned him at the St0rm server, he yelled "hax" and left, and he went to his server, SK Gaming and added me to the ban-list there.

I only found out about this ban BY CHANCE when I wanted to play a nice game on CnC_Field and I looked at the server list, and saw that Field was in rotation in a particular server. Heck, I did not even notice the server name...jumped right in only to find this ban message. I see what this server was and it is SK-Gaming Marathon.

As for asking about their forums, well, this fatass ExPedro has been doing this to many good players. I just talked with another respectable player (and a long-time member here) and ExPedro had banned him too for the same "aimbot"! I also heard from this person that ExPedro has a habit of banning players if they keep owning him and, to make things more difficult, this guy does not speak English that much.

As for the logic, haha, logic runs by life. There is 0% chance I will make a post or say anything that is logically flawed.

Does it just bug you that you aren't allowed there? Guess what, you aren't allowed to get into the trunk of my car...you are herefore BANNED from getting into my trunk! Does that bother you as well?

It isn't abuse of power. It is lack of judgment.

I know that guy... well I mean, I've played with him before. He does seem to think a lot of people use aimbots, not just you.

Have you ever played a game, single player or multiplayer, and where faced with a seemingly impossible task? The times where you, without realizing, argue outloud that it is unfair and you cannot beat it (and sometimes the occasional hi-pitched "WHAAAAT?!") You think the game is being cheap.

Well now imagine having the power to stop that. That is all that is going on. He probably has always played things easy. Always winning. If he was to play a game, he would play it on easy just to get the thrill of beating the game.

You can't reason your logic with his, it wont work and he will think you are out-right insane. What he thinks he is doing is the write thing, he isn't abusing powers.

That's just making your post look ridiculous.

Quote:Why do even the most skilled clan players think that someone was cheating if they get owned bad?
A lot of clan players would not be able to handle or deny getting owned by public players. If it does happen you will get replies like "1v1"?

Heard of the name vague but I doubt he is active in clanwars at the moment?

I wouldn't worry about it.Next time if you get accused make sure to have evidence, screenshots or what so ever where you are being called a cheater or hax to back-up your story.

@Blazer:

Actually, there is a reason to fight a ban that some idiot makes on a server you don't want to play on. When I was still playing I would get banned from a server I did like, or least felt like playing on sometimes, and when I went to fight it there would be a mod there who was also a mod on some other dumbass server I'd been unjustly banned from previously. So their logic would be: "you're banned from server x for cheating, so you must be a cheater, so no matter how much evidence you provide to the contrary I will never believe you." And by this point it'd be way too late for me to go back and fight the original silly ban they'd based their opinion on, and I'd be stuck.

Not that I think there's a huge chance of this happening to Starbuzz, but it's usually worth defending your Reneputation.

Seems you don't get it, he is an admin at that server.

He owns/get rights to be an owner (or controller/moderator of the server)

You can't abuse any goods that you are legally in control of.

It doesn't care for what he bans you it is his property thus he can do all he wants with it and thus it is not abuse. Your point fails, you cannot not abuse any goods you are owner of!!!

He can only be abusive according to their own rules on their forum.

Although indeed it is nicer to do it a better way than he did.

I think this is the same as Blazer wanted to point out.

-dam, have no SS, but I have a video which im too lazy to upload, but basically he has 2 gold cw.cc cups, yet I raped em on islands 1v1. g_G

Quote:Glad you brang that up, im pretty sure you talked alot of shit (tho you deny this), so I asked to see you play me and see if you continue to talk shit, result:

No you proved how well you can't handle taking losing. Where is me I can take losses, because I play this game for the fun and challenge. As for talking shit "Oh the irony!". You'r on of these types that will always blame it on the team, or map or lag or whatever fits your street.

I let you pick a dedicated server and I even let you pick a side.
But good job beating me on island. The next map you start to whine up when the cards are not on your side.

Then you decide to switch side when I am about to steal your med. Making the server to shutdown. Not only did you prove that you are a whiner you also proved that you are a sad loser.

IMO all 1v1 proves is who got luckiest, whether crate is 100 cred, 200 creds or refill will greatly affect game etc.

You invited me to join c4u. If it's passworded then ofcourse I will need a password.

First you tried to convince me that there is no such thing as "host advantage" lol.

On rush maps maybe. But not on tankmaps like field. 1v1's prove how well you can handle tanks and respond to the different situations that can occur. Eventhough the possibilities of doing tactics, and whatnot. Decrease.

I have yet to find someone who sucks at 1v1's and can manage perfect in a teamgame. Where is vica versa. He will do good in both situations.

That's why you have so many "videos/screenshots" that you conveniently won't upload.
