There is no proof that it exists, but there is no proof that it doesn't either.

Edit: By the way, didn't you say that you don't "Bash" religions, but "convince otherwise"?

I'm barely religious, I hardly practice religion excessively, but I don't find it okay at all for you to be able to come on here and bash religion and the whole idea.

People have the right to believe what they want, sure, but I'm not one of those insane christians that's going to come on here and OMG Y U WAGING DIS WAR AGINST CHRISTIANITY. There's just some things that don't need to be said.

Or at least could be said a little more maturely.

Arrogant little child.

No, a race is an ethnic group of people. A religion isn't a race.

How is it rascism unless you believe christians are a separate race. Christians come in all shapes sizes and races. Christianity is a religeon copied straight off the egyptians, it is not a race.

Lol, that makes no sense at all. A religion is not a race it is a religion.

Saying you don't like blacks is totally different than saying you don't like Christians. One is Ethnic discrimination (Racism) and the other is Religious discrimination.

"Religion," refers to a practice, or a set of rituals. "I brush my teeth religiously" means you make a habit to do so at regular and timely intervals. "I take communion religiously" means you do so on a regular basis, not that your faith in [whatever] is any stronger from doing so. Christianity means the acceptance of God's existence, mankind's wickedness, Jesus as savior, the end.

So Christianity seems to be more of a set of beliefs and moral standards than a religion. Protestantism and Catholicism seem to be more like religions, more often called sects because of the first misconception. In protestantism, the people gather, hold a service, collect tithe, sermon, worship, go home. Every Sunday and wednesday, usually at a set time. Schedules. Catholicism has a MUCH more structured schedule and set of rituals that they abide by even more so (at least in the cookie-cutter TV spots I see sometimes on their channel). This sort of leads me to believe that Catholics are more religious than Protestants as a whole (though it does not mean they are any more or less faithful IN these practices).

Islam unfortunately seems to be one of the few beliefs in which faith and religion seem to be uniformly high throughout the body *cough*wakeupcallforchristians*cough*

Afraid to say it, but in this, atheists can sometimes be more religious than non-atheists.

Also, if you go to church every Easter/Christmas, it doesn't mean you are a Christian, it just means you're religious.

Ah, sorry for the off-topic. Just noticed "religion" mentioned about thirty thousand times in this thread. Anyway, yeah. This hardly seems like "heated discussion." Just a stupid troll-ish remark with no constructive purpose whatsoever.
