Do you want a cheap one with lower reliability or do u have a lot of cash to spend?

Also: if u just want to fiddle around with it first, u could run one from your home connection.

Lastly: there's already way too many servers, so think before u add yet another one to the list.

Oh No. I'm pretty poor but I'm a money spender, so just whatever they have .. && I want a snipe server, not an AOW. Cuz all the snipe servers are lame. and too many maps are edited and what not.. etc. I don't really like the ones that i can download either cuz it's too confusing. so yeah www.aohost.co.uk is pretty cheap and Lee is a decent dude .

If you want to play on a good old classic snipe server (no edits, no unlimited ammo, ...) then you may want to look into TheKOSs2/BlackIntel snipe server (a0000000c). A bit of publicity is always good .
