Ive been looking for a couple of days now for some character skins and i don't seem to be having any luck.

By the skins i mean silver mobius, none protosuit sydney, raveslaw in combat gear etc.

I don't really know how to install or use them either.. well i wouldn't know even if i could find them heh.

Any help please?

<http://www.game-maps.net> is the popular website that supports and hosts Renegade files and mods based on the game.

At the site, you will find many categories for many different files and each week more are slowly added.

Most of the maps and skins are made into .exe files that will auto install to the default Renegade folder, which is C:/Program Files/Westwood/data, all you need to do is download and click to run.

If you installed the game to a other area of the computer, then the path is easy changed.

Never seen skins for visceroids.

Yeah, there is a little command you can do to get the secret characters, the command doesn't work on all servers and some servers already have these characters as part of their mods.
