Ok... How many people here stole a vehicule from the other team... Any of you noticed something??? PEOPLE SHOOT AT YOU! PEOPLE FROM YOUR OWN TEAM!!! I admint there must be a little confusion, seeing a mamoth driving back in the nod base, but after a couple of shots, and the energy staying still, why do people continue shooting at us???? CANT THEY SEE THE LITTLE NOD SING??? Man I was in a game an hour ago, and people did shoot at me during almost five minutes!! non stop!!! Even if I was crying out loud I STOLE A MAMOTH!!!IT'S OURS!!! it took more than 5 minutes to make them understand that There was no Invinsible mamoth in our base, but a stolen one.... Man please people, just take a look at what youre shooting at!!

Don't be stupid and put up a post like this. I stole 6 tanks in DEMO and every time when you got an enemy tank announce it to your team. Due to friendly fires is off you will not get any damage and they will notice that.

I TOLD THEM!!!! THATS THE POINT!!!! freindly fire was off, but try ti do something with 4 flamers following you and shooting trough your .... For five minutes, even if some of us told them it was yours!!!! I said it in the first post... Think you didn't read it till the end... A stole a lot of vehicules too, and I got uset to freinds shooting at me, but come on, five people doing nothing else than shooting at an invincible tank for FIVE MINUTES, while GDI is making an assault, and you trying to defend your base cause theses people are too stupid to look at what their shooting at, and look at the message on the top corner... don't tell me it's not annoying!!! And don't tell me I stupid either... You would have posted the same thing if you were in my shoes that day....
