Is is possible to remove the whole hud, including the time, credits, player info and points?

I can already disable the hud through console but it still leaves these.

I want the whole screen clear so I can take prefect screen shots.

NEVERMIND.

Someone, gave me a file to do it.

I know most of the hud can be disabled with the hud 0 command, but not all of it.

Is it a hud.ini file you used to blank the screen?

It's a .dll file made by one of the Renegade Gods here, not sure if it's public or not, I will ask him about it, if it's free for public use, I have it on Game-Maps for people to download.

Sir Kane said he didn't care, so here it is.

Hud and Chat Box remover now added to Game-Maps.NET, under Renegade Tools.

you have to type Hud in the console (F8) to disable or enable the hud, same with Chat.

He got around it by making a new account and noone cared enough to ban him again.

This is ridiculously off topic, though.

Umm that was different ways of asking. WHOREQWEER would have asked as the top said, but Heavy asked politely.

Well, kinda true but the person that banned me found out that HeavyX101 is HORQWER. He said that i could stay because i behave a little good now!
+My other account is unbanned.
