Warning for the people who still use 56K

The Post your Renegade screenshot Topic

- The point of this topic is to post your most honorable or fun Renegade moments.
- The idea of this is to tell a little line of text or story that came along with that Renegade moment.
- Of course you can just post a screenshot of a game you just played.

It may include any type of SS for example:

I'll start off with probably one of my oldest screenshots in my collection, it's not even made by me, I wasn't even making screen shots at the time.

Lag on Hourglass it was the Deadfive server? I can't remember the name it used. But it used to be a pointwhere kingdom. This server was hosted in Asia. At that time I was sitting in my MRLS. And look what happens next:

Amazingly fun game on Canyon! It came down to Nod Hon vs GDI Ref fairly early in the game, me and FlipDis rushed in a buggy and got the WF within the first 2 minutes of the game, but they hottie rushed and got our as. Me and Flip killed their bar via sbh nuke whilst I covered, but they got our ref at pretty much the same time. So everyone was fairly low on cash, but I did a fairly goodjob sniping!

EDIT: taken in n00bstories server, half hour of no credits and 121 kills

Bridge h4x (actually its just a simple glitch of getting stuck in the bridge. The enlarged player box is just all part of the glitch, dont even bother attempting to accuse me of cheating)

Should sell this shit as art:

oshit:

C4 Float:

A funwar n00bstories had vs _____ ( i dont remember). bombzu fails at facing the right way.

egoflux takes it in the face:

This is still one sweet screenshot right here, gdi got fucking owned in about 40seconds :

@Lone's last pic: Looks like a Goku powering up

@Blazer was you actually able to walk on that c4 stairway to the obelisk
That ION is a great pic too.

A nuke that someone planted in a funwar.

Smoked

I was hiding behind the concrete, then I saw a SBH inc, so I decided to take a shot not knowing, that he would die later by my remotes anyways.

These are both very old, the first one is just after the 1.037 patch, so I could save them as .png (once I even figured out how to take a screenshot). The second one is taken in late 2002, forgot which server, it was at the top of the list at that time, WOL Ranks were running full spend, the previous month I was ranked 13th in north america. At the time of the 2nd SS, I always played first person, lol.

<http://img86.imageshack.us/img86/7246/screenshot82bl7.png>

(Was .tga had to convert it using photoshop to .png just to be able to upload it to imageshack)

Meds in Fastc0nn the reason why I took this pic, was because of the ION and timing, other then that it reminds of what Ren Looks like on high detail

Light-tank Rush on Hourglass

The result

MRLS from the front I just had too take this SS, because I think that besides the Arty these things are freaking amazing. And ofcourse the good old pointwhoreing.

Odd that you would question infinite ammo (implying that I was cheating), but not question the massive amounts of timed c4 that was obviously placed within 5 seconds.

FYI Silent Kane and I were playing around on a test server, as we often did and he demonstrated cool things he could do.

I'm using links because some are big and I'm posting quite a lot. Most of these are old and I have about 650 total (minus about 150 I lost before I started this one).

Hopping engi (I like engies too if you can't tell).

<http://i181.photobucket.com/albums/x19/H3llian07/BCvsJelly.jpg>
2nd community game series between Black-Cell and Jelly. Jelly won both series and the game from this shot (by like 500 points at the very very end).

Recent ones that I scaled down so they're probably a bit blurry.

<http://i181.photobucket.com/albums/x19/H3llian07/Renegade610.png>
Super bad lag (Photobucket was dumb and shrunk it down by 1/4, so if you can't see it, the ping was 3741).

<http://i181.photobucket.com/albums/x19/H3llian07/Renegade619.png>
Some explosions.

<http://i181.photobucket.com/albums/x19/H3llian07/Renegade626.png>
Sieging AGT and in the line of fire.

<http://i181.photobucket.com/albums/x19/H3llian07/Renegade629.png>
Light Tank mass.

<http://i181.photobucket.com/albums/x19/H3llian07/LottaLadderPoints.jpg>
A lot of ladder points (from the above game).

<http://i181.photobucket.com/albums/x19/H3llian07/Renegade632-1.png>
Upgraded vehicles apparently.

These last three are from a story. On hourglass a long while back (in some German server), we lost our WF near the beginning. We had everything else. Nod had everything. I had a Medium Tank and a stealth Hotwire. They couldn't rush and kill any buildings nor the tank (and I left the base a bit on a few occasions). Eventually, some guy cheated and immediately left the game. My Medium Tank instantly blew up on the hill (not c4, because it was instantly and happened near our end of the slope). Afterwards, they rush and won, but they struggled with that too.

<http://i181.photobucket.com/albums/x19/H3llian07/Renegade1.jpg>

<http://i181.photobucket.com/albums/x19/H3llian07/Renegade2.jpg>

<http://i181.photobucket.com/albums/x19/H3llian07/Renegade3.jpg>

By the way, Black-Cell has a huge thread like this stickied jam packed with screenshots. I always wondered why there was nothing like that here, this being the official Renegade forum and all (unless I missed it).
