Filefront sucks..Their servers are slow as hell. MegaUpload is a good filehost so don't complain.

Also I like that sakura skin XD

Where'd you get it or else would you mind sharing it?

Any website that forces you to type in some gay ass code is gay, anyone using these sites is gay.

File Front owns, there is nothing better then a bit fat blue button that says "Download" and doesn't require you to register, login, type in some gay code 5 times in a row.
