my cousins were staying over and i let one play renegade while i was gone. later when i came back and tried to play online, it said i couldnt play and there were no servers on the list. i later realised my cousin downloaded some file and put it in my data directory. he put in some kind of damage hack .... so he is back home(at his house) and i will make sure not to leave him alone with my computer. but can i get unbanned because this wasnt really my fault. will my ip be blocked forever????

No one is going to take that "my cousin did it" excuse seriously, and I don't think anyone here will be helping you either.

Wow, now I wouldn't normally agree.., but that really is quite a lame excuse.

I think I have been banned from every server on the WOL/XSWIS list. Look at me, I come back a year later and everything is forgotten.

I did buy 6 copies of the game for £10 (3 for £5 FTW).

Down to my last two CD keys, not gonna cheat on them cause I don't want to have to buy more.

Best way I know to get unbanned is to send $20-30 to Crimsons house.

I have her P.O. Box address somewhere around here, lol.

No. If he's banned from a specific server, then he needs to plead his case there.

If he's banned from the Renguard network, he needs to pay $30 to Crimson / BHS

It looks like he was banned, from XWIS, so maybe www.strike-team.net

Here's the most common thing about "the damage hack in your datafolder"...

It causes "The 0 Bug", this removes the server listing from your client as a clientside "counterattack" to people who do this.

Fix:

Remove "Objects.ddb" from your "C:\Westwood\Renegade\Data\.." folder and restart Renegade. The list should return.

Else, contact Strike-Team and tell them your story.

Oh, and by the way, ignore all these faggots who laughing at you and not helping the cause.

PS: What you, or anyone else does with YOUR account is YOUR responsibility, no-one elses, so don't throw blame around for something YOU and YOU alone have control over. (being your accounts usage)

You need to donate $30 to those who are responsible for Renguard. Not sure if they accept the donation to unban you these days...but if you do donate it sure wont go towards further development of the software...lol Renguard is pretty much dead, and being bannred form the rg-network doesn't prevent you from playing renegade.
