I like to believe that I believe to believe for the believing that results in the thought that I beleif to beleive. I beleive.

Is you seriously that stupid to not realize that the CATALYST skin is for... CATALYST and NOT Windows?

bah to windows blinds, why not just use themes without installing 3rd party software. Just patch your uxtheme.dll and you can install custom xp themes.

http://themes.belchfire.net

Lots of free themes, first search for "uxtheme", download the multipatcher, then find a theme you like, download it and there you go!

I believe
